Foreword

WITH no little pride—a pride born of effort, if not complete success—we, the Publication Committee of the DHS broadcasting company, present a modest but complete record of the endeavors and the outstanding achievements of this station during the year 1931-1932. To illustrate the activities of the school in a picturesque and amusing, yet, dignified manner, we, in our imagination, have converted our beloved Alma Mater into a great national broadcasting net work. This system is composed of three prominent hook-ups, CLASSES, CLUBS, and SPORTS, and it is these stations that provide the programs for the National Broadcast. With the school board as the National Board of Directors, the teachers, the Board of Censors, and the pupils, the Directors and Entertainers on the various programs, we have tried to present the activities of this station in such a fashion that this report may be fully comprehended by its most casual readers and may command the admiration and the approval of its most exacting readers.

Word of Thanks

THE MESSENGER STAFF wishes to extend its most profound and sincere appreciation to everyone who has aided in any way in making the publication of this book possible. We realize fully that it is only through their benevolent and coöperative spirit that we are able to present the MESSENGER to the public. Especially to the following thanks are due :

Mr. Warren has always been an ever-ready source of advice and assistance and ever prepared to doctor the MESSENGER's finances when he perceived symptoms that noted deficiency.

Mrs. Egerton and Mr. Freeman were understanding and capable pilots for the literary make-up of the publication. They never despaired at any write-up, however crude.

To all teachers and pupils, not officially connected with the MESSENGER, who have so generously given their time and talents to aid in the production of our year book, the staff wishes to express its sincere thanks. We fully realize, too, that the school officials and the office force have willingly lent their facilities.

We feel indebted to Mr. J. L. Morehead and Miss Levinia Pridgen who have graciously contributed information concerning the growth and development of the school system.

And finally, to the advertisers who have so liberally given their time and money to help us in making a publication worthy of national attention, we extend our deepest gratitude. We hope that the subscribers of the book will recognize their coöperation and in return patronize these helpers.

We are confidentially looking forward to making this publication one that will uphold the standards set by preceding MESSENGERS. We hope that it may provide interesting reading and reliable information.

The History of Durham High School

MR. EUGENE MOREHEAD

The history of Durham High School starts with the history of Durham, for as soon as Durham became a chartered town in 1869, the enterprising citizens began to organize private schools. Soon the population became so large that the people became interested in starting a public school for those who could not afford to attend the few private schools already established. Since 1840 there had been in North Carolina a type of public school system, then known as the common school, but it had not flourished. In the legislature of 1881, Caleb B. Green, one of the leading citizens at that time, introduced a bill which provided for a tax on property for the establishment and support of a graded school. Through the enterprising efforts of other interested citizens, especially William T. Blackwell, the bill was passed, but even when it was passed there was a hard fought contest in Durham. However, the school was organized and opened on September 4, 1882, with E. W. Kennedy as superintendent. The Board of Education, composed of Eugene Morehead, J. B. Whitaker, and Bartholomew Fuller, rented for a school building a two story frame house known as Wright's

Factory, and within a few weeks there was an enrollment of three hundred eight. In addition to the superintendent, the teachers were Mrs. M. E. Mahoney, Charles D. McIver, Price Thomas, Miss Lula Freeland, and Miss Bessie Fanning. The next year three new teachers were added and the school grew to include nine grades.

For the next several years, the future of the school was uncertain. People became prejudiced against public education, but by the consistent efforts of Professor Kennedy and S. T. Tomlinson, who had been elected to the school board upon the death of Mr. Fuller, a bond issue was passed for the purpose of raising money to construct a real school building. Some of the tax payers fought against the school and through their legal proceeding in 1886 the Supreme Court declared the law that established the Durham graded school unconstitutional on the grounds of the race discrimination law that was passed at the same time. The bond money had to be returned and the school was left without funds. But Mr. Blackwell again came to the rescue, and through the philanthropic efforts of himself, Eugene Morehead, S. T. Tomlinson, E. J. Parrish, and R. F. Welch the school was able to continue for the school year 1886-87. In the election of 1887 the people voted in favor of public education and after a great deal of trouble and a lawsuit about the qualified voters, the public school was legally established.

From this time steady progress has been made. In the early school only the grammar grades were taught, but each year higher grades began to be added. About 1891 a new large building known as the Morehead School was built. This building was partly destroyed by fire in 1912, but was rebuilt in 1916, and is still used and known as the Morehead Grammar School. In this new building, of which W. D. Carmichael was principal, all grades including the tenth were taught. The enrollment increased so rapidly that it was found necessary to separate the high school grades from the grammar grades. With this in mind, money was raised in 1907 to erect a new building for the high school grades. The high school then included four grades while the grammar schools included six grades, but in 1914 a seventh grade was added by taking the lower pupils of the first year of high school and the brighter pupils from the seventh grade. A few years later a twelfth grade was added, but the system was arranged so that a brighter pupil could graduate in ten or eleven years. By this method the more precocious pupils are not handicapped by having to remain in the same class with those who wish to take plenty of time to finish school.

This first high school structure on Morris Street was sold several years ago to the city to be used as a municipal building. In 1923, to accommodate the increasing number of pupils, the present high school building was erected on Duke Street. With this new structure more interest began to arise in the extra curricula activities. Since 1905 the Blackwell Literary Society, the first organization of its kind in Durham High School, has done exceptional work in stimulating literary efforts. The Cornelia Spencer Society for girls was another of the trail blazers in the literary activities of the school.

The two societies were connected at one time, but were afterwards separated. Gradually, as the pupils became more interested in learning public speaking and literature, more literary societies began to be formed. As a result of the splendid work in public speaking among the societies, the pupils began to distinguish themselves in oratorical contests. In 1930 a pupil from Durham High School won the state declamation contest, sponsored by Guilford College, and in 1931 a representative won the expression contest sponsored by the same college. High places have been won in speaking contests sponsored by Wake Forest College and Duke University. Each year debaters have made a remarkable showing in the Aycock Triangular Debate. Durham High is now in permanent possession of the first Aycock Cup, having won it three times, two of these being in succession.

To afford the pupils an opportunity to learn more than reading, writing, and arithmetic, the executives have thoughtfully added courses of a cultural nature, art, music, journalism, and dramatics, as well as courses in scientific study. The music clubs especially have distinguished themselves in competitive work. They have won high honors each time they have entered the State Music Contest held annually in Greensboro. The Girls' Glee Club won first place in 1928, 1930, and 1931. First places were also won in 1931 by the Mixed Chorus, Girls' Trio, and Boys' Quartet. The science classes have gained honor by having a representative win the state Chemistry Contest in 1930.

MR. W. T. BLACKWELL

As the body as well as the mind was considered, athletics began to develop until now it holds quite an important place in the school life. The fundamental purpose of athletics is to teach true sportsmanship to its participants, but at the same time the teams have brought victory and honor to the school. The basketball team won the state championship in 1925, 1926, 1927, 1930, and 1931, and was runner-up in the N. C. State tournament in 1929. The football team crowned its years of steady work by winning the state championship in 1931. Several years ago wrestling was started in Durham High School with a good deal of success. In 1931 and 1932 the wrestlers won first place in the state wrestling tournament conducted by State College. Boxing, tennis, baseball, track, and golf are some of the other sports that have been successfully started in the school.

Journalistic tendencies have also been developed in Durham High School. Besides the class in journalism there is an annual publication, "The Messenger," and a bi-monthly newspaper, "The Hi-Rocket." Both of these publications are members of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and, as members, have brought honor to the school. In 1930, 1931, and 1932, "The Hi-Rocket" won over all the school newspapers in the nation and in 1930 and 1931 "The Messenger" won first place in the nation. In 1932 "The Hi-Rocket" won the Hume Cup for the best school newspaper in the state.

The students in foreign languages have not only learned things that will be useful in future life but have also brought recognition to our school. They have made a good showing each year in the state language contest and in 1929 and 1930 pupils from Durham High School won first places in the State Latin Contest.

While some students are learning cultural subjects, others are learning commercial subjects which help them a great deal in becoming the leading business men and women of our city. In the State Commercial Contests held each year, the pupils have established an enviable record. In 1929, 1930, and 1931 the shorthand classes won several cups, both the beginners and the advanced pupils. In 1931 the typists also won first place.

Since its feeble start in 1881, the Durham High School has progressed and won recognition. In a short while it has done very creditable and exceptional work, made startling progress, and has taken its place among the best schools in North Carolina. One of the most visible results of this progress is the spirit that is instilled into the students, and as a result a larger percentage of Durham High School graduates attend college and a smaller percentage fail than from any other school in North Carolina. This record should be a constant source of pride to the citizens of Durham.

Principal's Radio Message

EVERY good radio station must have ample power for transmitting or receiving messages. In addition to this, there must be accurate adjustments in the mechanism in order to accomplish the desired results. The radio requires no wires between stations but operates through the medium of the invisible. How like Youth this is. Boys and girls must have pure physical, mental, and moral power in order to be able to make the proper adjustments for a greater community citizenship, ever remembering that their true success depends on their own personal heart and soul, dials being tuned with the great invisible spirit—Youths Creator. Station D.H.S. signs off visualizing a nobler to-morrow for the boys and girls of today and bids each one God Speed.

CLASSES

Station Classes

Good day, ladies and gentlemen. This is station CLASSES sending to you the final series of programs of the year. We operate on a frequency of seven hundred kilocycles by the authority of the National Board of Directors and under the supervision of the National Board of Censors. Five days a week, we, as a hook-up of the national broadcasting station DHS, send to you a series of programs which is sponsored by the entire staff of station workers.

It is almost time for us to tie up with the national station for the purpose of relaying to you a final résumé of the programs which have been sent out through this station during the past school term. But before joining the network, let us give the newcomers an idea of what they are about to hear.

These programs are divided into five parts according to the work accomplished by the participants. The five divisions are namely: Senior, Junior, Sophomore, Coöperative, and Post-Graduate. After coming successfully through the elected course of training, the worker is awarded one of the three diplomas which are offered at this station. The College Preparatory Diploma is given to those who have completed the requirements of the course prescribed by the College of their choice. This is the most desirable reward offered by the station, for upon receiving this diploma one is able to join an international broadcasting station. The General Diploma is awarded those who have prepared themselves for life with no special view of entering college. These workers have more opportunity to specialize in the subjects which are most interesting to them. The Commercial Diploma goes as a reward to those who successfully pursue the subjects which are suited to a business career. Having graduated from the Senior entertainment, one may, if one so desires, participate in the Post-Graduate program. The additional training here received is usually something pertaining to the business side of the radio. The Coöperative Class is composed of those who, though engaged in some other work, desire the training and benefits which the station offers.

Led by capable leaders which the program participants chose from their number, this series of entertainments is the foundation of the station, and it is around them that the whole net-work is built. We now turn you over to the national broadcasting station for the reception of the first program in the series.

ERNEST EMMETT ABBOTT

"DOODLE"

*"Tis joy that moves the pinion
When the wheel of time goes round."*

Coöp. Class 4.

Although Ernest has received only a small amount of his schooling in Durham High, he has shown us that he is a real "Guy." Happy-go-lucky is he, and yet he is sincere in everything he does. When "Doodle" comes in with a smile on his face, gloom goes out the window.

RACHEL ADAMS

"RACK"

"A great devotee of the Gospel of Getting On."

Lila Brogden Literary Society 4; Girl Reserves 4; Messenger Staff 4; Library Council 4.

"Rack," coming this year from West Durham, has convinced us that though there's not much of her, there's a great deal to her. Because of her amiable disposition and pleasing personality, she has taken her place in the hearts of teachers as well as students. We feel that the now efficient circle of teachers will be much improved when she enters it as a "school marm."

MARCIA ANDERSON

"MART"

*"And still they gazed, and still their wonder grew,
That one small head should carry all it knew."*

Hi-Rocket Staff 3, 4, Literary Editor 4; Athena Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3, President 4; Girls' Club 2, 3; Home Room Treasurer 3, President 4.

"Mart" is certainly a girl of whom we are proud. She has upheld the scholastic standing of her class and has a monopoly on "A's." Her desire is to be an author, for which she has every talent.

MILDRED BURRUS APPERSON

"BEBE"

"Life has more of sun than sorrow."

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Athletic Club 2, 3, 4; Athena Literary Society 4, Treasurer 4, Stunt Cast 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4.

Through her keen sense of humor this quiet and unassuming lass has acquired many friends. Her gaiety has brightened many a gloomy day for us. Luckiest of the lucky will be the employer who secures "Bebe" for his stenographer.

MARY ELIZABETH BARBEE

"MARY LIB"

"Music is well said to be the speech of angels."

Lila Brogden Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Home Room Vice-President 1, 3, President 4; Art Club 4, Secretary 4.

"Mary Lib" is truly a child of Opheus, for she knows music. Perhaps she's Cupid's daughter, because she certainly hits the men at just the right spot—not by cooking either. Anyway, we like "Mary Lib" very much—even the girls admit that she certainly is a "charmin' chile!"

NANCY HABEL BARBEE

"Great thoughts come from the heart."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Messenger Staff 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; Athletic Association 1, 4; Art Club 4.

We may look all over Durham and not find a more likable, amiable person than Nancy. She possesses a personality all her own, and wins her friends simply by being herself. Last, but not least, she does her work without a murmur. We all have faith in Nancy's ability to realize her ambition to become a government clerk.

MARY KATHERINE BEASLEY

"KAT"

"Friendship is the most sacred of all moral words."

Current Events Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4.

"Kat" is one of the High's finest girls. She's very conscientious in her studies, quiet in manner, affable in disposition. Isn't that a grand combination? She'll do anything for a friend at any time. That explains the gap that will be made when she leaves.

DOROTHY MAE BECK

"DOT"

*"Discourage never knew me,
My fortitude is unbreakable."*

Commercial Club 3, 4; Girls Club 1, 2, 3.

"Dot's" the girl for the age! She wants to become a beauty specialist and to administer to the needs of those who need her. She has been ever ready to cooperate in all class projects, thus portraying the wonderful school spirit of which we like to boast.

MARY ELIZABETH BITTING

"MARY LIB"

*"Most joyful let the poet be;
It is through her that all men see."*

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 1, 3, 4; Hi-Rocket 1, 3, 4; Messenger Staff 4; Dramatic Class 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; Stunt Cast 1, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4.

Good poets are few and far between. We are glad to say that D. H. S. is very fortunate in having one of the best. Judging by her poetical work here, we can well say that "Mary Lib's" future works will be acclaimed great by all the world.

MURPHY ROBERT BOYD, JR.

"FRECKLES"

*"And wisely tell what hour o' the day
The clock does strike by Algebra."*

Current Events Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4.

It is good to have someone around who is as obliging as "Freckles." He is a willing helper to both students and teachers; in fact, he is at his best when assisting some one. Since he is mathematically inclined, we are thinking that he may be a second Pythagoras.

BESSIE BASSETT BREEDLOVE

"BESS"

"Music is the universal language of mankind."

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Hockey Team 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3.

Here's one of the most accomplished musicians of our class. She can play the piano in a way that everyone envies. "Bess" is always in a good humor and goes about her work cheerfully and gayly. All of us admire and love her.

CHARLES LEWIS BRIGHT

"CHARLEY"

"Art is power."

Football 1; Tennis 1, 2; Current Events Club 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

Every inch of tall "Charley" is dependable. Although he does not force himself into any group, he is always in demand because of his willingness to help. Since he has proved to be most talented in art, he has appropriately decided to be an architect.

DAVID L. BROCK, JR.

"JACK"

"Thou sailest wide to other lands."

Commercial Club 1, 2, 3; Current Events Club 3, 4; Secretary 4, Treasurer 4; Home Room Secretary 4.

"Jack's" first and last thought is aviation. With uncanny reasoning he has directed his talent to the study of commercial aviation. He has the fine qualities of a second Lindbergh. We are expecting him to stay on top.

CLARICE LAYTON BROOKS

"PAT"

"The most completely lost of all days is that on which one has not laughed."

Home Room Vice-President 1, 4; Treasurer 3, Marshal 4; Stunt Cast 1, 2; Football Mascot 1, 2; Baseball Manager 2; Commercial Club 2, 4; Current Events Club 3, 4, Vice-President 3, President 4; Monogram Club 3, 4.

"Pat" is small but for the past four years he has been a very important person in D. H. S. Never is he seen without his cheery grin, and never is he present without his gay greeting. If anyone ever deserved a big slice of success, it's "Pat." We predict that he will get it!

LUCILLE RAYNOR BROWN

"Music's force can tame the furious beast."

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 1, 2, 3; Stunt Cast 1; Cornelia Spenser Literary Society 3; May Queen's Court 4.

Though our lovely song bird is going to spread her wings and fly away to parts unseen, we have no fears, for we know that wherever Lucille goes her gracious smile and her beautiful voice will win her friends on every hand. We only ask that she think of us now and then and count us among her great throng of loyal admirers and supporters.

WOODROW JAMES BRYAN

"CHIN"

"I feel an army in my fist."

Kiwan Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Carmichael Literary Society 3, 4; Vice-President 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Carr Literary Society 1; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Wrestling 2; Commercial Club 3, 4; Baseball 1, 4; Basketball 1; Monogram Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Stunt Cast 1, 2.

"Chin" is especially forceful on a football field. He accomplishes annoying things with perfect ease. We feel that he'll put himself across and become quite a successful salesman.

WALTER PEMBERTON BUDD, JR.

"BUD"

"A friend in need is a friend in deed."

Hi-Rocket 1, 3, 4, Assistant Business Manager 3, Assistant Circulation Manager 3, Business Manager 4; Walter Hines Page Literary Society 3, 4.

"Bud" is Okay when he smiles—in other words, he's Okay all the time. He is one of our best business managers and one of our best golfers. We have learned to depend on "Bud."

WILLIE S. BYRD

"BILL"

"God is with those who persevere."

Coöp. Class 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Stunt Cast 2; Coöp. Choral Class 3.

What a pull! But "Bill" made it. He "dug" and "dug" deep. Well might he say (with apologies to Whitman),

O Teachers! My Teachers! My faithful course is run;
My brain has weathered every rock, the diploma I sought is won.

Willie was a willing worker and a true asset. We're going to miss him, but it is with joy in our hearts that we watch him climb the ladder to success.

FANNIE FOY CARDEN

*"Born for success, she seemed
With grace to win, with heart to hold,
With shining gifts that took all eyes."*

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Library Council 4; Cafeteria Helper 3, 4; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4.

We pay a well deserved tribute to one who not only helps others but always does it with a smile. Fannie's invaluable services around the school have won her recognition; her invaluable services in life will win her fame.

FRANCES LOWE CARLTON

"FRANK"

"Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die."

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Athena Literary Society 2, 3; Choral Class 2; Glee Club 2; Southgate Literary Society 4, Critic 4; Stunt Cast 2, 3, 4.

To be useful as well as ornamental is an art to be envied. "Frank" is the agile little person who deserves this praise. She does not bury her talents in the ground, but employs them for the pleasure and betterment of others.

DONALD GILBERT CARRINGTON

"JIMMIE"

"Great thoughts, like great deeds, need no trumpet."

Carr-Carmichael Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Secretary 3, Treasurer 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Messenger Staff 4; Athletic Association 3, 4.

"Jimmie" laughs at his work, and turns it into play. He lives a life filled with activities, and yet always finds time to do something to cheer up the drab world. If consideration for others could be valued in terms of money, "Jimmie" would have untold wealth.

WILLIAM DAVID CATON, JR.

"DAVE"

"All things are easy that are done willingly."

Blackwell Literary Society 4, Vice-President 4; Dramatic Class 4; Hi-Y Club 4; Home Room Vice-President 4.

"Dave" has earned the distinction of being classed as a jolly, all-round boy, playing an excellent game of tennis, and speaking in public with perfect ease. This hard worker, who is invariably pleasant, spreads his geniality on every class. We are positive that success will crown his efforts as an attorney.

MARY ELIZABETH CHEEK

"Gentle in manner; firm in reality."

Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1.

A gentle mannered lady whose face radiates a happy, lively spirit is Mary. She is a hard, conscientious worker and her work is always gratifying. These characteristics forecast for her great success in the medical profession.

MAUDE NOVELLE CHEEK

"NOVIE"

"Of manners gentle and affections mild."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4; Home Room Secretary 4.

How lucky we were to have such a pleasant person within our ranks; how unfortunate we are to separate from her this year. Because "Novie" attains success in everything she undertakes, she can't possibly fail to be an excellent dietitian. We hope that she won't give it up too soon for some other profession.

THOMAS LEONARD CHEEK, JR.
"TOM"

"All this is for a song."

Carmichael Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, 4; Home Room Treasurer 3; Art Club 4, President 4; Track Team 4.

"Tom's" two great ambitions are to be able to excel Rudy Vallé and to be a ladies' man. However, these ambitions do not keep him from being one of the most accommodating and cheerful boys in school.

SARAH ELIZABETH CLARK
"SUE"

"Deep waters noiseless are."

Lila Brogden Literary Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4.

Although "Sue" hasn't held a spectacular place in the limelight, she has moved steadily along and has accomplished much during her high school career. Her wide range of knowledge, which she has acquired from intensive reading, has won for her the admiration of her classmates and teachers.

AUBREY COLE

"He'll find a way."

Carr-Carmichael Literary Society 3; Commercial Club 4.

Aubrey has had the ability to outline his future. He has made civil engineering his life's endeavor, and by foresight that exceeds his stature to a marked degree, he's "going on."

DOROTHY PROCTOR COLE
"DOT"

"One word of music can do monstrous things."

Basketball Team 1, 3; Girls' Club 1, 3; Glee Club 3, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Marshal 4, President 4; Messenger Staff 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Woman's Club Declamation 1.

Always laughing and gay, "Dot" goes through life having a great big time and at the same time trying to keep from flunking French. If you have ever heard her "pound" a piano, you know she will succeed in her ambition to be a musician.

EULA LILLIAN COLLINS
"LIL"

"To know her is to love her."

Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Dramatic Class 4; Home Room President 4, Vice-President 3; O. Henry Literary Society 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4.

"Lil" is one of those girls everybody loves! We all like to hear her give readings and to see her on dramatic class. She's one of the basketball team's stars. Some day she hopes to become a gym teacher. We wish you all the luck in the world, Lillian!

DELIA L. COPLEY

"He who searches for pearls must dive below."

Current Events Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 2, 3.

Conscientious Delia! She rushes around the school acquiring news for the Hi-Rocket, for Journalism Class,—for anything. She is the champion of the weak and down-trodden. The world will be improved when Delia gets into full swing.

RAYMOND BENSON COUCH
"COUCH"

*"The man that hath no music in himself,
Nor is not mov'd with concord of sweet sounds,
Is fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils."*

Carr Literary Society 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 3, 4.

Couch is a chip off the old block—i.e. Mr. Twaddell's block. See him first as he blows that bass horn and next as he directs the entire band! All of Raymond's teachers agree that there's nothing he needs more than a—Couch—in reality.

COMMODORE THOMAS COUNCIL, JR.
"TOM"

"A man of mark."

Carr-Carmichael Literary Society 3; Carmichael Literary Society 2; Home Room President 1, Vice-President 2; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

What would D. H. S. do without "Tom"? He's always willing to run errands and go up town on "business trips." He draws his way through a happy-go-lucky life. We know "Tom" will succeed if his social activities don't demand too much of his time.

M. T. COUSINS, JR.
"EMPTY"

"Music is a thing of the soul."

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Empty" is our trumpeter. His musical fingers work nimbly when he performs before an audience, and the result is an orgy of beautiful sounds. We like to call on "Empty" every time we desire entertainment.

BESSIE JOURDAN COZART
"BEE"

"I also add that natural ability has raised man to glory."

Glee Club 1; Athena Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4, Secretary 4, Stunt Cast 4; Girls' Club 2, 3; Home Room Vice-President 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, 4; Basketball Team 3; Athletic Association 4.

Bessie is rather quiet, but she makes herself felt on the basketball court. She insists that her hobby is "doing nothing," but anyone will tell you that she is energetic and capable. With such qualities we feel sure that the business world will be waiting to receive her with open arms.

WILLIAM RICHARD DAWSON
"BILL"

"Every good man measures himself by his own standard."

"Bill" is the baby of the Coöp. class. He is the little fellow with the big voice. Possessing the sterling qualities of a true gentleman, "Bill" is sure to reflect honor on the class of '32.

RALPH VALENTINE DERMOTT

"As good be out of the world as out of fashion."

Carr-Carmichael Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Class Treasurer 1; Home Room President 3, Vice-President 4.

Ralph takes particular pride in being one of Durham High's fashion plates. He surpasses in the art of bluffing; however, since he hopes to become a lawyer, this talent will probably spell success.

CLARICE ALTHEA DIXON

"REESE"

"A friend is more divine than all divinities."

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athena Literary Society 2, 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Messenger Staff 4; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 4.

"Reese" who is a rather quiet little mouse until you know her well, has carved a place for herself in D. H. S. Her many friends will tell you that there is no one like her. Our best wishes will go with her as she leaves us.

MARGARET CAGLE DIXON

"A friend is, as it were, a second self."

Commercial Club 1, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Secretary of Home Room 4; Lila Brogden Literary Society 4.

D. H. S. can boast a steady and efficient worker in Margaret, who goes about her tasks good-naturedly. Her energy seems to be never-ending. The employer who secures Margaret will be rewarded tenfold.

WILLIAM BURWELL DUNN, JR.

"BE DONE"

"To God, thy country, and thy friends be true."

Carr Literary Society 3, 4, President 4; Home Room President 2, Vice-President 4, Treasurer 3, 4.

A loyal student and true friend describes Burwell exactly—always ready to help with student activities and to do more than his part. The confidence placed in him by his school mates is clearly shown by the numerous responsible positions to which he has been elected.

MARVIN DuRANT

"IODINE"

"The man who loves and laughs, must do well."

Walter Himes Page Literary Society 3, 4; Tennis Squad 3, 4; Central Hi-Y 4.

"Iodine" came to us from the "Iodine State." There is nothing he enjoys doing more than playing tennis. Even though he's about as small as the smallest, he plays tennis well and is a genius at the "American Reverse" serve. His ambition to become a chemist has made him a frequent visitor in the chemistry laboratory.

ADELL CLAIR EAKES

"ACE"

"She hath a daily beauty in her life."

Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Cabinet 2; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athena Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Marshal 3, Stunt Cast 4; Secretary of Home Room 3; Athletic Association 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4.

"Ace" is what she really is to the "Hi-Rocket," for she's the card that counts. Although she does not advertise herself as some, she's much more dependable. Since our "Ace" is leaving, we hope that she will hand some of her creditable traits to her younger classmates.

CHARLES WILLIAM EDWARDS, JR.

"CHARLIE"

"Education is the only interest worthy the deep controlling anxiety of the thoughtful man."

Home Room President 2; Blackwell Literary Society 2, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Senior Play 4.

Charles doesn't talk much, but when he does say something, it is sure to be worth while. He plods steadily at his work and, when pressed with difficulties, keeps a cool head. The medical profession, toward which he has an inclination, will gain much through "Charlie."

DOROTHY LOUISE EDWARDS

"Thought alone is eternal"

Library Council 4, Treasurer 4; Glee Club 1, 3; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4; Girl's Club 1, 3; Senior Play 4.

"Dot" isn't always pouring forth her thoughts by way of her mouth, but she has many thoughts stored up in her head. Miss Lewter will testify as to her capability on the Library Council while D. H. S. will testify as to her ability for carrying out orders.

SOPHIE EISENBERG

"SOPH"

"Exhausting thought and growing wisdom with each studious year."

Girl Reserve 1, 2, 3, Treasurer 2; Athena Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Stunt Cast 4, Treasurer 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 4.

Studious and wise, that's "Soph"—but timid, never! Though indifferent to most things, the good things of life always come to her. We are inclined to believe that the reason for this is her naive charm and quaint way. Sophie intends to conquer the field of math, unless—well, one never can tell about these quiet folks.

BENJAMIN WILSON ELLIOTT, JR.

"OSCAR"

*"I profess not talking: only this,
Let each man do his best."*

Basketball Team 3; Carr Literary Society 3, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4.

Quiet, patient, and attentive, but when it comes to sports he is always ready to take part. Ben gladly assumes any task that is given him; and once he has started to work, he never gives up until he has done all and done it well.

GEORGE RUSSELL FAUCETTE

"KINKY"

"No man was ever wise by chance."

Athletic Association 4; French Club 3, 4; Wrestling 4.

"Kinky" may be small but the number of his friends symbolizes his spirit. Let us hope that he retains his friendship toward all. As a civil engineer he is headed for success if he tackles and conquers the seemingly impossible the way he has his Latin.

MARGARET ELIZABETH FRANCK

"MARG"

"Every thought which genius and piety throw into the world alters the world."

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Marshal 1, Chaplain 4, Stunt Cast 1; Hi-Rocket 1, 3; Basketball 1; Girls' Club 1, 3; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Declamation Contest 1; French Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Dramatic Class 4; Messenger Literary Editor 4; Senior Play 4.

"Marg" is original, busy, and happy. She leads in labor and in play. She's always around when there's work to do, but she's just as ubiquitous when play is in progress. There'll be no standing still for "Marg." When she gets out on her own, she'll rise.

ADAH BELLE FULFORD

"LUMP"

"Silence is wisdom, when speaking is folly."

Athena Literary Society 4; Athletic Association 3; Girl Reserves 4; Girls' Club 3.

A quiet little miss but very popular in her school activities. She is such a willing, capable, and cheerful worker that we like her more each day.

WILHEMINA KATHERINE FULLER
"MENA"

"Sweets with sweets, war not; joy delights in joy."

Hi-Rocket 1, 2, 4, News Editor 4; May Court 1; French Club 3, 4; Home Room Officer 1, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Play 4.

Working when she has to and having a big time always, "Mena" trips gaily over the school. Her work on the Hi-Rocket is well worthy of mention. It wouldn't be D. H. S. without "Mena." We'll miss her.

VIRGINIA GADDY
"GYNYA"

*"Life is short, and time is swift;
Roses fade, and shadows shift."*

Southgate Literary Society 3, 4, Critic 3, Vice-President 3; Home Room Secretary 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 1; Athena Literary Society 2.

Wherever she goes Virginia will "breeze" through life breaking masculine hearts as well as all records as a "Charmer." Although we are inclined to think she will miss that daily ride home in the little gray Ford, she will probably own an automobile plant all her own.

MARY CHARLTON GALLAGHER
"CHARLIE"

*"Let them call it mischief;
When it is past and prospered 'twill be virtue."*

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2, President 4; Commercial Club Cabinet 3; Girls' Club 2, 3; Southgate Literary Society 2; Current Events 3; Messenger Staff 4.

The laughing green eyes of "Charlie" betray a lurking mischief. But what attractive mischief! After she graduates from her training school, we know that just as laughingly, and just as mischievously, those eyes will be successful in helping some poor fellow back on the road to health.

EDITH PAULA GARRARD
"EDDIE"

*"A smile for all, a greeting glad,
A friendly, jolly way she had."*

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Athena Literary Society 2; Current Events Club 3; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 4.

"Eddie" is a girl for all times. With her super-knowledge of English and of French, she will find a place to nurse—be it France or America. How we'd like to see the good old girl dolled up in her white uniform and cap!

EVELYN GARRISON
"CHUBBY"

"She worked while others played."

Athena Literary Society, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; French Club 4.

"Chubby" is a girl who is bound to succeed. She is always willing to do her part by helping others in any way possible. She not only stands high in her class but also stands high in the minds of her fellow students. Here's hoping that all she undertakes will help make her known to others as she is to us.

CLARA LOUISE GATTIS

"Make two grins grow where there was only a frown before."

Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 2, 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3.

Generally speaking—and Clara is generally speaking—it is hard to find a better person than this gay lass. She dances through life joyously, picking up bits of knowledge (making a collection of short sonnets) as she goes. Clara is one of Durham High's favorites.

ELMO PULLEY GENTRY

"JERKY"

"Talk with a man out at a window"—a proper saying.

Home Room Vice-President 2; Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Carr Literary Society 3, 4; Carr-Carmichael Society 2.

"Jerky" has one controlling ambition—to become a forester worthy of nation-wide recognition. May he get the best out of life and not "pine" himself away, when he's on the outskirts of civilization.

JOHN PAUL GILBERT

"FATS"

"A man of courage is always full of faith."

Blackwell Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Marshal 3, Vice-President 4, President 4; French Club 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Messenger Staff 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Senior Play 4.

Having been an honor roll pupil, "Fats" is practically sure of making a place for himself in the world. It will be an enviable place too, since his willingness to work, his penetrating mind, and his dynamic energy, will win for him only the best.

CAROLYN LEHMAN GOLDBERG

"There is no knowledge that is not power."

Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 4; O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; Stunt Cast 1; Dramatic Class 4, Treasurer 4; French Club 3, 4.

Mr. Holton can tell about Carolyn's aptitude for making "A's" on history; and any of her other teachers can tell about her "Learnability" in the rest of her subjects. But her schoolmates can tell about her friendliness, her mirth, and her moods.

INEZ CATHERINE GRAY

"NEZ"

"Every man's work shall be made manifest."

Girls' Club 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 3, 4.

"Nez" is a hard worker with a heart as big as her book-sack. She has acquired a large range of knowledge by her studious habits. We know that her "never-give-up" attitude will carry her successfully through a business career.

VIOLET LOUISE GULLEY

"vi"

"Rare is the union of beauty and virtue."

Athletic Association 3, 4; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 3, 4; Girls' Club 3; Girl Reserves 2.

When "vi" wants to relax, she laughs. We'd like to see her relaxed all the time, because her laughs bring such joy. She plans to be a school teacher (not the sour type). How we'd like to be one of "Vi's" pupils!

DAVID VINSON HAMLIN

"The light he leaves behind him lies upon the path of men."

Coöp. Class 3, 4, President 4; Coroso Play 4; Carr-Carmichael Literary Society 3.

Laughing at hard knocks and smiling at troubles, this debonair young gentleman is a shining example of the hard-working boy. Although taking a major part in the Coroso Play and being president of the Coöperative Class, he has continued making good grades throughout the school year.

ELSIE WEBB HARRIS

"To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved."

Lila Brogden Literary Society 4; O. Henry Literary Society 1; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Club 3.

Elsie is famed for her dependability. She is a true "Messenger to Garcia," who can be trusted with the most difficult task. Her little frame can hold a pack of responsibilities, the size of which would make one gape. We almost wish that Elsie wasn't graduating this year.

PEARL ELIZABETH HARRIS

"Knock at our hearts and find our thoughts at home."

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3; Home Room Treasurer 2, Secretary 1.

Pearl doesn't believe in the saying, "Children should be seen and not heard." In the first place Pearl is not a child. She is old enough to say what she thinks, and her thoughts are usually worth while. Pearl will make a good advocate of "Woman's Rights."

WOODROW W. HAYES

"WOODY"

"Hear, O you groves, and hills resound his worth."

Football 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Captain All-Eastern Football Team 4, All-State Football Team 4; Baseball 2, 3; Basketball 2; Track 3, 4; Monogram Club 2, 3, 4; Carmichael Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Kiwan Club 3, 4; Home Room Vice-President 3, 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2.

Cap'n Hayes had all "ye fair damsels" wild during the gridiron season and kept them in that state afterwards. We prophesy that "Woody" will gain his goal in life as he "snagged" passes on the field.

MARGARET VIRGINIA HAZEL

"POLLY"

"Age cannot wither her nor customs stale her infinite variety."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Marshal 4; Hi-Rocket 3; French Club 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; Basketball 1.

"Polly," with her blonde hair and her blue eyes, goes through life having a gay time, yet working when it's necessary. If you miss "Polly" some day, you'll probably find her with some "Shadee" character.

JAMES KIERNAN HENDERSON

"JIMMY"

"A pill at the present moment is daily bread to thousands."

Home Room Treasurer 3; Basketball Manager 3; Toms-Carmichael Society 1, Stunt Cast 1; Walter Hines Page Literary Society 3; Assistant Football Manager 3; Phy-Chem Society 4; Hi-Y 4; Kiwan Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

If "Jimmy" likes his work as a surgeon as well as his work in math and science, he will be widely known. We shall always support him and shall expect him to live up to our expectations.

WILLIAM HENRY HESSEE

"BILLY"

"Neat, not gaudy."

Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Page Literary Society 4; Commercial Club 4.

With his "Buddy Rogers" hair and his "John Barrymore" features, "Sheik" Hesse will certainly help the aeronautical world. Although he likes aviation, he has no signs of being "high minded." The combination of grey matter and good looks assures us that he will make a successful aeronautical engineer. However, we hope he doesn't get side-tracked into modeling for what the well-dressed aviator will wear.

SUSIE ELIZABETH HICKS

"DINK"

"How far a little candle throws its beam."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4; Home Room Secretary 3.

Susie is certainly the answer to a big surprise in a little package. She moves quietly about, but always makes a bang in Math and French. We all say, "Ask Susie" when we need help, for we're sure she knows. No one can deny that we all love "Dink."

LEWIS SNEED HIGH

*"He nothing common did, or mean
Upon that memorable scene."*

Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 1, 3, 4, Assistant Business Manager 1, 3, 4; Messenger Staff 4; French Club 3, 4; Home Room Vice-President 1, 3, 4; Tennis Team 3, 4.

Sneed is a "Jack of all trades," yet we can't say that he is "master of none." Those who saw him as a very stylish, prissy stenographer will never forget his ability to steal a show. We know that Sneed will get to the top in everything he endeavors to do.

FRANCES LUCILLE HIGHSMITH

"LUCY"

"Anything done for another is done for one's self."

O. Henry Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 2, 3.

It is hard to find a girl more genial and affable than "Lucy." Her willingness to lend a hand when help is needed has made for her a wide circle of friends. When she graduates, she will leave behind a student body that has implicit faith in her ability to make herself loved wherever she goes.

ALLIE M. HOBBY

"That woman with the sombre eyes."

Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Southgate Literary Society 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

Allie is a quiet, unobtrusive miss. We know that if her secretarial work doesn't aid her in life, those big brown eyes will. Behind that serene exterior, however, there is a driving force that most of us would like to have. It will be an asset to Allie.

ROBERT MAYNARD HOBGOOD

"BOB"

*"So much one man can do,
That does both act and know."*

Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 1, 2, 3; Stunt Cast 1; Coop. Class 3, 4; Coroso Play 3; Tennis Team 1; Band 1, 2, 3; Orchestra 2, 3; Commercial Club.

"Bob's" studious efforts and ability to act have made him well-known and thoroughly liked throughout the school. Since he has the desire and ability for work, he will surely make the grade.

SAMUEL HENRY HOBGOOD, JR.

"HOBBY"

"Where is there a truer heart?"

Monogram Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 3, 4; Track 3; Kiwan Club 3, 4, President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Home Room Treasurer 4, Monitor 3; Commercial Club 4; Literary Society 1.

Wake up, "Sam"! It's time to go! However, "Hobby" is not always asleep. Watch him on the football field! Watch him in the class room! Watch him in life! He's a winner!

WILLIAM SANDS HOLLOWAY HOBGOOD
"BILL"

*"For rhetoric, he could not open
His mouth, but out there flew a trope."*

Athletic Association 3, 4; Wrestling Squad 3, 4; Cheer Leader 4; Dramatic Class 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Messenger Staff 4; Hi-Y Club 4, President 4; Kiwan Club 4; Blackwell Literary Society 3, 4, Secretary 3, Vice-President 4, President 4; Student Body Secretary 4; Home Room President 4; American Legion Orator 3, 4.

"Bill" is a fighting man. He holds his ground as well with his hands as he does with his tongue. The world won't be able to cow Bill when he steps forth to take his place in the ranks of the famous.

GEORGE THOMAS HOOKER
"HOOK"

"He did things and did them well."

Coöp. Class 3, 4; Carmichael Literary Society 3, 4.

From all appearances "Hook" must be a genius. He is able to uphold his reputation as a lover as well as that of a scholar. He takes delight in making play out of work.

LELA RITCH HOOKER
"OPHELIA"

"A bit, a very palpable bit."

Lila Brogden Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Home Room Vice-President 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity 3; Senior Play 4.

Flitting here and there about the high school, Lela's optimism and bustling activity instills a new spirit into everyone. With a bit of make-up, she can make a Lon Chaney of any amateur actor. On the other hand, her interest in activities has never caused her to neglect her studies, for she is an honor roll student.

WILSON WARNER HOPKINS, JR.
"HOP"

*"Upon the well-graced actor as he leaves the stage
The eyes of men are bent."*

Phy-Chem Society 3, 4, Treasurer 3, 4, Secretary 4; Dramatic Club 4, President 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4.

The villain, the drunkard, or the hero—any part he plays, he does with the ease of a born actor. Notwithstanding this ability, "Hop" is also an excellent science student. He chooses the latter as his profession—he can't fail to succeed.

EMMA MALVINA HORNER "EMMIE"

"She's wit, she's charm, she's common sense."

Home Room Secretary 1, 3, Treasurer 3; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

It's not often that one finds a truly domestic girl. However, Durham High can boast that "Emmie" will easily find the way to a man's heart. "Emmie" tends towards being a housewife and also possesses a great deal of charm. "Emmie's" are few and far between.

MARTHA ELIZABETH HORTON

*"There is a garden in her face
Where roses and white lilies grow."*

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Home Room Vice-President 3; Glee Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

We wonder whether Martha is more interested in the study of shorthand or the study of the masculine sex. She is such an attractive girl that we have a feeling that she will make a "go" of either whether she turns out to be a stenographer or wife.

MARY FRANCES IVEY

"A picture is a poem without words."

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Lila Brogden Literary Society 2, 3, 4, President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Messenger Staff 1, Art Staff 4; Home Room President 2; Art Club 4.

Mary Frances' ability to draw has distinguished her in the field of art. Her high ideals and her executive ability have been an inspiration to many. When, upon a wall of some noted art gallery, we see a picture painted by our classmate, Mary Frances, we shall gaze at it with admiration and—well, it's no more than we're expecting.

MARGARET IZARD

*"Born for success, she seemed,
With grace to win, with heart to hold."*

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; Athletic Association 1, 4; Basketball Team 1; French Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Messenger Staff 4; Home Room Treasurer 4.

There is usually someone smart in every class, but there is seldom anyone who manages to get on the honor roll for four successive years and still enter into extra curricular activities. Margaret has done this and with an excellence that shows she possesses grit and intelligence.

MARIA LOIS JAMES

"LIZA"

"And gladly would she learn, and gladly teach."

O. Henry Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 2, 3; Commercial Club 4.

The end toward which Lois is striving is to become a teacher. Because of her studious nature, her coolness of temper, and her desire to search deeper into things, she is sure to make a teacher worthy of being called a former student of Durham High.

ELMER DOUGLAS JOHNSON

"ED"

*"His life was gentle, and the elements
So mixed in him that nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This was a man.'"*

Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Coöperative Class 3, 4, Secretary 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; French Club 3.

The four years of work that Elmer has accomplished in Durham High School speak for themselves. Who could weigh his possibilities? Who could estimate the value and influence that he has been to Durham High? Any verbal description that we might make would be far inferior to the real article.

LOIS RUTH JOHNSON

"WEE"

*"Like music on the waters,
Is thy sweet voice to me."*

Home Room Vice-President 2; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

One of the great arts of all the ages is music. It has swayed mobs that violence could not budge. Ruth's musical talent has been developed through four hard years of study and at the present time she is quite an artist. Should she develop her chosen life career, nursing, as efficiently as she has her music, success will crown her efforts.

WILLIAM MURRAY JONES, JR.

"BANJO-EYES"

"And he was always quietly arrayed."

Blackwell Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Marshal 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Glee Club 1; Messenger Staff 3, 4; Art Club 4.

Hail! The King of Artists! Those who do not know our friend by this title, will probably recognize him by "Banjo-Eyes" Jones, who has for the last three years been quietly drawing his way to the kingship of artists. In the meantime, Jones has been endeavoring to learn from his school books.

DOROTHY FAUCETTE KIRKLAND

"DOT"

"Patience is the best remedy for all ills."

Girl Reserves 1, 2; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 4.

"Dot's" greatest achievement is one that few people can claim—the ability to stay quiet until the time to speak presents itself. Whenever someone is needed to support an activity, this young lady is there with the necessary goods.

PHILIP HOLLOWAY KIRKLAND

"FLIP"

"Ease with dignity."

Hi-Y 4; Kiwan Club 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Carmichael Literary Society 3, 4.

"Flip" goes his way, disturbing no one, and allowing no one to disturb him. He is unperturbed always and possesses a quiet dignity that is vastly impressive. "Flip" will get just what he deserves—the best.

PHYLLIS STARR KIRKLAND

"BABY"

"Precious things come in small packages."

Athletic Association 1, 2; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Girl Reserves 2; Hi-Rocket Staff 3, 4; Current Events Club 3; Athena Literary Society 4; Cafeteria Helper 4; Stunt Cast 4.

This little girl, shy but high in the class, has distinguished herself as a brilliant scholar. Books seem to be her most trusted companions. Phyllis, though least, is not last in our high school race.

PAUL KLUTTZ

"KLUTSIE"

"God is with those who persevere."

Hi-Y 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Klutsie" has always flown high in our opinions, but not satisfied with that, he wants to fly high in an aeroplane. There is a great demand for aviators of fearless perseverance. That's why we place all our bets on "Klutsie."

CLIFTON BROOKS KNIGHT

"BROOKS"

"A good heart is better than all the heads in the world."

Coöperative Class 3, 4, Marshal 4; Baseball Manager 2; Football Manager 3; Stage Manager 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Home Room President 1, 2; Julian S. Carr Literary Society 1, 2; Manager of Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3; Carr-Carmichael Literary Society 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3; Commercial Club 4; Stunt Cast 2; Coroso Play 4.

Whether he be on stage or on class, this able young man takes the lead. On account of a strict working schedule Brooks' stay in D. H. S. has been prolonged, and the school has been all the better for it.

FRANCES WALKER LAMBETH

"FANNIE-ANNIE"

"A pleasing countenance is a silent commendation."

Athletic Association 3, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 3, 4; Home Room President 3; Messenger Staff 4; Girls' Club 3; May Court 3.

Asheville gained the qualities of beauty, capability, dependability and friendliness in "Fannie-Annie." We wish we could have kept her always because it was a joy just to have her around. Although she is gone, she will never be forgotten.

ARTHUR CARL LEE, JR.
"PUT-PUT"

"We look upon him as a gem of the old rock."

Messenger Staff 2, 3, 4, Assistant Business Manager 3, Business Manager 4; Hi-Rocket 1; Page Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Chaplain 1, Vice-President 2, Treasurer 2, 4, Secretary 3; French Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Choral Class 1, 2, 3; Dramatic Club 1, 2, Treasurer 2; Class Treasurer 4; Vice-President Student Body 4; Home Room President 2, Secretary 3; Football Squad 3, 4.

"Put-Put"—the human dynamo! Throughout his stay in D. H. S., he has carried out his undertakings with a vim and vigor that is almost as great as his contagious grin.

LOUISE SKINNER LEIGH
"PEGGY"

"They who are pleased themselves must always please."

O. Henry Literary Society 4.

"Peggy" has been with us only a short while, but she has found a place in our hearts. Although she is not the studious type, she always manages to come out on "top." She has the kind of personality which will bring her a host of friends.

JOSEPH LEVIN
"YUT"

"What's the use of worrying?"

Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Basketball 3; Tennis 3; Carmichael Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3; Home Room Vice-President 2.

"Yut's" popularity is ascribed to his good natured tolerance of all of life's rebuffs. He smiles back at fate and goes his even way. "Lady Luck" should give "an eye for an eye" and smile back on "Yut."

LUNELL LEWIS
"LOUIE"

"Every misfortune is to be subdued by patience."

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 3, 4; Girls' Club 4; Commercial Club 3, 4, Cabinet 4; Messenger Staff 4; Stunt Cast 4.

If bushels of intelligence, tact, patience, and friendliness are what are needed to be successful in an undertaking, our "Louie" will certainly get where she wants to go and do what she wants to do, for she certainly has an abundance of those qualities.

WILLIAM ALLEN LEWIS
"BILL"

"A thing seriously pursued affords true enjoyment."

Hi-Y 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Page Literary Society 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Debating Team 4; Student Council 4; Hi-Rocket 4; Kiwan Club 3; Home Room President 4.

"Bill" will some day make a great financier. He has the knack of handling money, and of making it grow. He is also a regular "Shark" when it comes to mathematics, and is very frequently seen helping young ladies with their problems.

ETHEL CARR LIPSCOMB
"ARTHUL"

"Be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves."

Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; French Club 3, 4; Dramatic Class 4; Basketball Team 1, 3; Hi-Rocket 3, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 1, 3, 4; Chaplain 1, President 4; Senior Play Cast 4.

Jolly, witty, likable—all these adjectives fit "Arthul." She is full of energy when energy is needed. She is a true "woofum."

ELIZABETH LIVELY
"LIB"

"Laugh and be merry; remember, better the world with a song."

Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Marshal 4; Varsity Basketball 1, 4; Stunt Cast 1.

"Lib" is the "Lively-est" girls that we know, for she is never still a moment. Her brain as well as her body is nimble and quick to move. This active lass is bound to make a way for herself—by sheer "movability."

KATHLEEN RUTH LONG

"I have a heart with room for every joy."

O. Henry Literary Society 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Blue Triangle 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2; Girls' Sport Club 3.

Kathleen plans to feed the world. We know that the world will beat a path to her kitchen, and D. H. S. will be beating with the rest. Yum! Yum! We're already yearning for those good meals.

HELEN FAYDEEN LOWE

"Nothing is more useful than silence."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2.

Those who think much and say little are to be acclaimed. Helen possesses this quality to a marked degree and is the greater for it. When she does express her opinion, everyone listens.

PAUL WARREN LUCAS

"RED"

"They are able because they think they are able."

Carr Literary Society 3, 4; Football Squad 3, 4; Wrestling Squad 3; Phy-Chem Club 4.

In "Red" we have at last an athlete whose ability to work well in school is not to be scoffed at, for his grades are well above the average. "Red" is an example of the "happy medium," and we know that some profession will need a man like this.

MARY ELIZABETH LUNSFORD

"LIB"

"Deeds not words."

Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Athena Literary Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 4, Cabinet 4.

Just like the water in the spigot, "Lib" is always on tap, ready to help in any way she can. We have learned to depend on "Lib" very much, for she always does whatever she undertakes the best way she can.

NANCY RUTH LYON

"SPOOGIE"

*"She that was ever fair and never proud
Had tongue at will, and yet was never loud."*

Southgate Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Home Room Vice-President 3, Treasurer 4, President 4.

"Spooogie" is the type that has the world at her feet. As she is versatile, capable, and "good to look at," one finds her a very entertaining person to have around.

RUTH FLORENCE MacKAY
"YANKEE"

"For always roaming with a hungry heart Much have I seen and known."

Athene Literary Society 4; Messenger Staff 4.

"Yankee" has been to so many high schools that she would qualify for a "High School Inspector." Although every year has found her in a new place, she picked D. H. S. from which to graduate. We are proud that our school should attract such an excellent pupil.

JAMES LINWOOD McCULLERS
"RABBIT"

*"But the man worth while is the one who will smile
When everything goes dead wrong."*

Page Literary Society 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4.

"Rabbit" he is and in the true sense of the word. He has been hopping over Durham High ever since he first hopped over. With his ever-present wise cracks he puts a little spice into the program of the day. Now he wends his way to State where he will learn the art of engineering.

NED FOY McKAY
"MAC"

*"The ladies call him sweet;
The stairs, as he treads on them, kiss his feet."*

Why is "Mac" so well liked? Perhaps for his smile, perhaps for his generosity and perhaps for a little of both. Anyone who can win his way into so many hearts, in such a short time, deserves the crown of popularity.

JOHN DUNCAN McLAUHLIN
"MAC"

"Too busy with the crowded hour to fear to live or die."

Coöperative Class 2, 3, 4; Glee Club Chorus 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3; Page Literary Society 4.

We think we know the secret of "Mac's" success. When a person starts shining his shoes twice a day, and wearing socks, ties, and handkerchiefs all the same color, there is a big reason for it. No matter what the reason, Duncan has shown that he can be studious and is well worth honorable mention.

MARGARET HOLT MANGUM

"An intellect of highest worth, a heart of purest gold."

Home Room Secretary 2, 3; Treasurer 4; O. Henry Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 2, 3; French Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Library Council 4.

Margaret's cheerful disposition and friendly smile brings joy to everyone. She is an excellent student who loves music and reading. Her career is yet undecided, but we all hope that she succeeds in whatever she undertakes. Good luck, Margaret!!

SARAH HACKNEY MARKHAM

"Whence is thy learning? Hath thy toil o' books consumed the midnight oil?"

Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 2, 3.

Her sincerity and her indomitable spirit have won for Sarah the esteem and admiration of all her associates. By her precise and unsurpassed ability in all her studies, she has impressed D. H. S. with the fact that she will surely succeed in anything which she undertakes.

HERBERT A. MASON

"HERB"

"The well of true wit is truth itself."

Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 3; Monogram Club 4.

"Herb" has learned to meet people and to get along with them. He does what he must without complaining and puts a great deal of zest into what he likes. We know that he will put things across and become a great salesman.

THOMAS WOODROW MASSEY

"DOE"

"There is moderation even in excess."

Hi-Y 1, 3, 4; Page Literary Society 1, 3, 4; Kiwan Club 3, 4; Hi-Rocket 3; Messenger 3, 4; Stunt Cast 2; Dramatic Class 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Senior Play 4.

With a smile he always greets you, 'specially when he relieves you of your money on the lunch counter. His skill in the art of handling coins will enable him to be a great banker.

ANNE WILSON MEBANE

"MISS ANNE"

"She's all my fancy painted her, She's lovely, She's divine."

Class President 2, 4, Vice-President 3; Home Room President 2, 3, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

Ever charming and perfectly poised, "Miss Anne" makes friends wherever she goes. Perhaps she possesses that elusive thing called "It." At any rate, she has a forceful, determined character that will take her far toward her ultimate goal, whatever it be.

CUMMINS AIKEN MEBANE

"CUMP"

"A friend is worth all hazards we can run."

Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Track Team 3; Golf 3, 4; Hi-Rocket 2, 3, 4, Business Manager 4; Treasurer Student Body 4; Phy-Chem Club 4; Vice-President Home Room 4.

"Cump" practices brotherly love; in fact, he considers us all brothers. He is getting a little first hand training in the Hi-Rocket for his future position as business administrator of U. N. C. A fine fellow is "Cump."

JOHN GILMER MEBANE

"GYP"

"He was a gentleman from sole to crown, Clean favored and imperially slim."

Hi-Rocket 1, 3, 4; Home Room President 1; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Phy-Chem Club 4.

"Gyp" is a gentleman and an exceedingly likable one. His motto is: "Maximum grades for minimum work." We must admit that he gets the maximum grades. We hate to lose "Gentleman Gyp."

LLEWELLYN LAWRENCE MILAN

"LEW"

"Gentle to others, to himself severe."

Current Events Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 1, 4.

Under Mrs. Gholson's guiding hand, Llewellyn has learned to understand the happenings of the day. This ability to interpret the trend of affairs, backed by the ambition to climb to the top, will make "Lew" the citizen that Uncle Sam needs.

WOODROW MIMS

"WOODY"

*"Silence is golden,
But one is known by speech."*

Kiwan Club 3, 4; Athletic Club 2, 3, 4.

"Woody" has developed the spirit of opposition to the "nth" degree. He is "against" many issues that present themselves and expresses his opinion upon the matter. This inclination to ferret out every situation will make him a business man of no small power.

ELIZABETH MINTON MORRIS

"The silent countenance often speaks."

Home Room Secretary 4; Athena Literary Society 3, 4, Secretary 4; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

If silence be a virtue, and it is, this quiet little girl has one great virtue of which to boast. We like her because she's quite accomplished in the art of writing themes and more accomplished in the art of making friends.

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS MULHOLLAND, JR.

"C. C."

"Everything will come if a man will only wait."

Page Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 1; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

One gets out of life just what one puts into it. When one spends one's time smoothing over the rough spots of the daily grind with a gay, carefree spirit, one is likely to have happiness returned with a multitude of good friends thrown in for good measure. Such is "C. C." May the world prize him as highly as we do.

HAZEL BEATRICE MULHOLLAND

"TRIXY"

"Little said is soonest mended."

Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Current Events Club 3, 4.

Sometimes "Trixy's" blue eyes are dancing with fun, sometimes they are deep with seriousness. However, you may be sure that she knows when to laugh and when to cry. All good things will come to one who possesses such tact.

ALICE LENELDA MUNFORD

"NELDA"

"How much lies in laughter."

Southgate Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; Commercial Club 3, 4.

Many a time Lenelda has kept up the spirits of her many friends both in and out of school. She is distinguished as one of the few purely Titians of the class. Having done outstanding work in the literary society of which she is a member, "Nelda" will be "gone but not forgotten."

ANNA NEAMON

"APHRODITE"

"Knowledge is more than equivalent to force."

Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 3; Athena Literary Society 4; Girls' Sports Club 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Sewing Club 2; Home Room Secretary 1, 2.

Besides being an excellent student, Anna excels in extra curricular activities. The gym will lose one of its faithful devotees, because Anna will throw goals from some other hardwood floor. The same pep and efficiency will bring her success as a secretary.

ANNIE LAURIE NEWSOM
"SISTER"

*"Her eyes as stars of twilight fair;
Like twilight's, too, her dusky hair."*

Hi-Rocket 1, 3, 4, Assistant Editor 3, Editor-in-chief 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Vice-President 1; Basketball 1, 4; Home Room President 1; Class President 1; Student Body President 4; Girls' Club 1, 3, Vice-President 3; Senior Play Cast 4.

A leader without conceit, a friend without treachery, a foe without intrigue—Annie Laurie.

MYRTLE BELL OAKLEY
"MURT"

Thou wilt not utter what thou dost not know;
And so far will I trust thee."*

O. Henry Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2; Home Room Treasurer 1, Secretary 4; Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

A tiny girl with a big smile is "Murt." Her cheerful disposition penetrates the coldest personalities and wins them for permanent friends.

"NELL"

"Cookery is become an art, a noble science."

Cafeteria Helper 1, 2, 3, 4; Current Events Club 3; Athena Literary Society 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." Should this maxim be true, "Nell" will have the men of Durham at her feet. She handles the food of D. H. S. mess hall with skilled hands. This ability, together with study, will make her what she aspires to be—an authority on dietetics.

RUTH GARNER O'BRIANT
"PAT"

"The day is short, the work is much."

Girls' Sport Club 3; Home Room Secretary 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Pat" is recognized as one whose artistic ability and personal attraction will carry her far in her future career as a designer. Her troubles will be easily surmounted if she applies the same enthusiasm and interest which have characterized her school work.

She turns, on hospitable thoughts intent."*

"Pig" has personality "plus." She is the vivacious center of many circles. The head on her shoulders is used for study as well as for allurements. "Pig's" charm will carry her through!

WAYBURN CARLYLE O'BRIENT
"BUCK"

"By their fruits ye shall know them."

Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 1, 2; Walter Hines Page Literary Society 3, 4, Marshal 4.

"Buck" is the boy who just loves to do physics experiments. When his head is bald and his name is famous because of his physics experiments, we'll proudly say that he came from dear old D. H. S.

ANDERSON MOORE OLDHAM

"ANDY"

"The noblest mind the best contentment has."

Athletic Association 4; Current Events Club 3, 4; Senior Play 4.

"Andy's" conservative temperament prevents many from understanding his real worth. To those who know him, he is a friend well worth claiming. His extensive reading will undoubtedly furnish the foundation for a successful career.

CATHERINE ELIZABETH OVERMAN

"CAKY"

"Life is not so short but that there is always time enough for courtesy."

Girls' Club 2; Girls' Athletic Club 2; Lila Brogden Literary Society 4.

Calm, cool, collected, 'Caky' possesses a character that keeps us constantly catering to her capabilities. "Caky" can be copied by none 'cause "Caky's" considered the catch of the crowd.

JANE MARGARET PARKER

"JANIE"

*"A cheerful life is what the Muses love,
A soaring spirit is their prime delight."*

Home Room Secretary 1, Chaplain 1; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3.

"Janie" has shouldered the responsibilities that have been given her during her high school life with a cheerfulness that is the envy of her classmates. The world is looking for a girl like "Janie."

"From little sparks may burst a mighty flame."

Commercial Club 3, 4; Athena Literary Society 2, 3; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Basketball Team 1; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

"Lil" may have a hard time in some of her classes, but she finds it quite easy to master mathematics. Perhaps some day, after Mr. deBruyne has retired, she may be the best mathematics teacher in Durham High.

RUTH ELEONORE PATTERSON

"PAT"

*"God sent his musicians on this earth,
With songs of sadness and of mirth."*

Athena Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Class 4; National High School Chorus 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Quartet 1, 2, 3, 4; Mixed Quartet 1.

To one who has such a promising voice the future must look bright indeed. "Pat" realizes that the radio wants good singers and she will be quick to take advantage of this want. Our music choruses will miss you, but always remember that our cheers are for you.

DORIS MARIA PEARCE

*"A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is innocent."*

Library Council 3, 4, President 4; O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Secretary 4, Stunt Cast 1.

We cannot fail to pay tribute to one who has done the excellent work that Doris has. She works and plays with equal zest, and the poise with which she does both is envied by many. How can one so well adapted fail to be a math teacher who will equal deBruyne, Watkins, Haywood, Swindell, and Woodward combined?

LOIS JANE PIERCE

"Abstinence is as easy to me as temperance would be difficult."

Commercial Club 4; Lila Brogden Literary Society 4.

Lois came to us from Cincinnati. If all the girls out there are like her, we think we'll go to Cincinnati to stay. Although she has been with us only one short year, she leaves behind a host of friends and a tradition of clean sportsmanship.

CARL LEA PEED

"Gentleness succeeds better than violence."

Tennis Team 3, 4; Coöperative Class 4.

Quiet? Yes. But his is the kind of serenity which denotes culture. Carl is well versed in his mother tongue, and although he is retreating in nature, when he does enter into things, he shows himself capable of doing his share and if necessary much more.

WILLIE HAZEL PENDERGRAPH

"BILL"

"Patience is a necessary ingredient of genius."

Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4.

The people who can successfully combine both work and play are few and far between, so one should hang fast to them when they come. We can't keep "Bill" ourselves so we're sending an advanced warning to the business world, advising them to keep her in its coils.

WILLIAM HOWARD PERRY

"PUB"

"A man that hath friends must show himself friendly."

Hi-Y Club 1, 2; Home Room President 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; President 4; Carmichael Society 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

FRANCES MILDRED PHIPPS

"FRANK"

"A just fortune awaits the deserving."

O. Henry Literary Society 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

To become Mr. deBruyne's pride and joy requires strenuous, exact labor, for our math teacher is a hard taskmaster, and yet it is "Frank's" privilege—her justly won privilege—to be christened thus. She's exhibit A on her Math Classes.

FRANCES HAMMOND PIATT

"FRANK"

"Her tongue was very glad when she was asleep."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 2, President 4; Home Room Secretary 3; Girls' Club 1, 3; Library Council 4; May Court 4.

"Frank" always see the funny side of things. She prefers joking to studying, but, in some occult manner, manages to make good grades. "Frank" longs to make a happy home for some "Prince Charming." Lucky man!

MERN PLYLER

"CHIN"

"The saying that beauty is but skin deep is but a skin deep saying."

Girls' Club 1, 3, Secretary 3; French Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; May Court 1, Queen 4; Home Room Officer 3, 4; Class Vice-President 1; Messenger Staff 4; O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Treasurer 1, Vice-President 3, Stunt Cast 1; Basketball Team 1, 3; Dramatic Class 4, Secretary 4.

There's something different about "Chin." She combines beauty and knowledge in one head and what a piece of workmanship is the result!

WILLIAM T. POLLARD

"BILL"

"It matters not how long we live, but how."

Class Secretary 3; Home Room President 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3; Toms-Carmichael Literary Society 1; Carmichael 2, 3, 4, President 3, Treasurer 4.

"Bill" is one of our school "fixtures." D. H. S. will tell you that he is a jolly good fellow. He goes his solemn way indifferently, but makes friends left and right. He has our wishes for a good trip on life's highway.

RUFUS HEFLIN POWELL

"RUF"

"Appeared and stayed, and held his head as one of kings accredited."

Blackwell Literary Society 1, 3, 4, President 4; Kiwan Club 3, 4, Board of Directors 3; Editor-in-chief Messenger 4; Home Room Vice-President 1; Aycock Debating Team 3, 4; Athletic Association 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Winner of Woman's Club Declaimer's Medal 3.

Rufus is well known for what he is, envied for what he has done. His debating and declaiming are stepping stones to his promising future in the field of law. His business ability has shown him capable of great things. We praise his past and look forward to his future.

MYRA BLANCHE REAVES

"MIRROR"

"It is good to lengthen to the last a sunny mood."

Athena Literary Society 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 3.

We like people with sunny dispositions, therefore, we have a "leaning" towards "Mirror." She combines practicability and cheerfulness, thus assuring us that she will gain an important place in life.

H. CORTEZ ROBERSON

"SLIM"

"First come, first served."

Kiwan Club 3, 4; Current Events Club 2, 4.

Jovial, fat, and full of energy. That's "Slim"! Throughout his high school career his ever smiling countenance has beamed upon his classmates. We are sure that he will never lose his avoirdupois through worry. Nevertheless, his genial personality will enable him to overcome those obstacles which present themselves before him.

VIRGINIA MESLEY ROGERS

"GEETA"

*"O'er rough and smooth she trips along,
And never looks behind."*

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4. Secretary 4; Girls' Club 1, 3.

Petite, pretty, and happy are the words that were made exclusively for "Geeta." These are qualities which carry one far along life's highway toward the goal of true success. Therefore, we see no reason why she should not reach the top notch of her chosen profession—stenography.

FLORENCE ROSENSTEIN

"FLOSSIE"

"Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thoughtful of others."

Athena Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4. Stunt Cast 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 3, 4.

"Flossie" may fail in History, but she does not fail in making friends. She is a born helper and makes a specialty of keeping teachers' records straight. Many are the demands for a girl like "Flossie," and she is capable of filling the order.

THURMAN JOHNSON ROSS

"DOC"

"The silence of the people is a lesson for kings."

Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Baseball 4; Varsity Track 3; Class Secretary 2, President 3; Current Events Club 3, 4, President 4.

Not only a plunger on the gridiron but also a plunger in his studies, "Doc" has come through to score another time. Besides being most valuable to us in athletics, he is also most valuable to us in our school life. We hate to see him go, but our best wishes go with him.

PHILIP MOSLEY RUSSELL

"PHIL"

*"Nowhere so busy a man as he ther was,
And yet he seemed bisier than he was."*

Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Home Room Secretary 1, President 4; Blackwell Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Chaplain 2, Secretary 3, Chairman Executive Committee 4; Kiwan Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Hi-Rocket 1, 3, 4, Assistant Circulation Manager 3, Co-News Editor 4; Hi-Y 3, 4, Secretary 4; Debating 3, 4; Senior Play 4.

During "Phil's" stay in the high school he has shown that he has that very excellent quality—leadership. As he has been a leader in many school activities, he will, we know, be a leader in the field of medicine.

F. SARGENT RUSSELL

"SARG"

"Charm strikes the sight, but merit wins the soul."

Home Room Treasurer 4; Blackwell Literary Society 4, Chairman Executive Committee 4; Debating Team 4; Messenger Staff 4; Athletic Association 4.

Even though "Sarg" has been here only a short while, he has proved, in many ways, his actual worth. He has made a name for himself on the debating team as well as in the Blackwell Society. His power to manage things makes us certain that he will become a very influential business man.

ANNIE JUANITA RUST

"NETA"

"Honor is the reward of virtue."

Class Basketball Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 3; Athena Literary Society 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

Taking an active part in all sports, all works, and all projects, "Neta" has wended her happy, cheerful way through the school. Sunny as to disposition and as to hair, she has won friends on all sides. Such a rare combination foretells an excellent career as a trained nurse.

HILDA LEE SALLY
"SALLIE"

"That load becomes light which is cheerfully borne."

French Club 3, 4; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 4.

A good all-round girl is "Sallie." She turns first to study then to athletics and various activities. She makes herself well loved and highly esteemed by all who come within reach of her sunny smile. We like "Sallie" because she radiates good cheer.

FRANK GRIFFIN SATTERFIELD, JR.
"JACK"

"None but himself can be his parallel."

Boxing 3, 4, Captain 4; Wrestling 1, 3; Page Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Stunt Cast 4, Treasurer 2, Vice-President 3, President 4; Class Vice-President 1, Class Secretary 2; Monogram Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Kiwan Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Jack" is a great sport who puts his whole soul behind what he has to do. He has many friends and is very cooperative. His fascinating personality and perfect manners are a sure key to his success, no matter whether his career be that of a lawyer or of a tobacconist.

CORA VIRGINIA SATTERWHITE
"LITTLE JINNIE"

"'Tis good to be merry and wise."

Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 4, Secretary 4; Girl Scouts 1, 2; Blue Triangle 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 3, 4; Home Room Secretary 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4.

Virginia's attractive personality is admired by all. She is always kind, cheerful, and entertaining. Being an excellent commercial student, "Little Jinnie" is sure to be a successful secretary. We are betting on her, for she's a winner.

MARY LOUISE SHEPHERD
"MERLONEEZE"

"We profit most by serving others."

French Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 3; Home Room Secretary 1, Critic 3, President 3; Class Secretary 4; Literary Editor of Messenger 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; O. Henry Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Stunt Cast 1, 4, Secretary 3, Vice-President 4; Commercial Club 4; Maid of Honor, May Court 4.

The usual things cannot be said about "Merloneeze" because she is not a "usual" sort of a girl. She is one of those rare persons who give "service with a smile." When we see that smile, we wish that she could serve us all the time.

MILTON TRACY SHEPHERD, JR.
"PICCOLO"

"The music in my heart I bore, Long after it was heard no more."

Walter Hines Page Literary Society 1, 2, Secretary 2; Carmichael Literary Society 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Band 1; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Home Room Secretary 3.

Even his nickname, "Piccolo," shows how musically inclined is Milton. We have heard his singular musical numbers with pleasure here at D. H. S.; therefore, we await with anticipation his musical accomplishments in the world.

JOHN BURKE SIMPSON
"BUCK"

"Be silent and safe—silence never betrays you."

Current Events Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 3, 4; Home Room Treasurer 3; Hi-Y 2, 3.

John's quiet manner pleases all his associates and makes him a good friend to all. He has been one of the many conscientious "Mainstays" of the school. Engineering will undoubtedly be profited by so valuable an addition to its best aspirants.

BENJAMIN SMITH SKINNER

"SKIPPY"

*"My object all sublime
I shall achieve in time."*

Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3; Page Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Chaplain 4; Hi-Y Club 4; Basketball 3, 4; Library Council 3; Class Treasurer 1; Commercial Club 4.

"Skippy" has truly well-earned his name. On a basketball court he has a big time keeping everyone guessing where he's going to skip next. His cheerful smile is a big help to all of us, and will be missed when our "Skippy" leaves.

JAMES HORNER SMITH

"HEAD"

"Valor consists in the power of self-recovery."

Carmichael Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 1, 2; Commercial Club 4; Athletic Club 1, 2, 3; Home Room President 3; Senior Play Cast 4.

"Head" will be missed by the undergrads at school as well as by his classmates, for he is a feature of the school. In school and out "Head" is all there, every bit of him, and that's saying a great deal.

AGNES MARIE SMITH

"REEKS"

"Yea, she did fly upon the wings of the wind."

Basketball 1, 2; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2.

Under her seemingly frivolous surface Marie is really serious. We feel that she will accomplish a great deal in life. However, between horseback riding and aviation, we do not know which she will "fall" for. Whatever she does, she will do it well.

MARY ELLA SMITH

"SMITTY"

"Every tub must stand on its bottom."

Glee Club 2, 3; Current Events Club 3; Lila Brogden Literary Society 4.

While a student here "Smitty" has won many friends. The spirit of a go-getter plus a pronounced musical ability will help her to accomplish something worth while.

EDITH SOUTHERLAND

"BITSIE"

*"Men should be what they seem;
Or those that be not, would they might seem none!"*

Southgate Literary Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Home Room Treasurer 1.

Vim, Vigor, and Vitality—"Bitsie" has 'em all and has 'em to such a high degree that she seems to instill into others her buoyant spirit. To be able to make others happy is a great endowment, and no one can do this better than our "Bitsie."

LEE ROY SPARKS, JR.

"SPARKY"

"The conscious utterance of thought by speech or action, to any end is art."

Blackwell Literary Society 2, 4; Boxing Team 2, 3, 4; Art Club 4.

Pugilism and art make a strange combination, but we have both of these traits in "Sparky." He is one of the boxing team's stand-bys and a promising artist.

ETHEL FARTHING SPEED

"SPEEDY"

"She was not of an age, but for all time."

Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Lila Markham Literary Society 3, 4; Messenger Staff 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

"Speedy"—yes, she is very speedy, especially when she's typing a letter or taking a speed test. Having well prepared herself in the commercial department, she will surely become an accurate and influential business woman.

ABRAHAM DAVID STADIEM

"ABE"

"The labourer is worthy of his reward."

Current Events Club 3; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4.

"Abe" is a good old name and it belongs to a good boy. We will miss him when he leaves but here's wishing that his path will be a happy one. He has been a good booster for his alma mater, and he will be a better booster for his town. We'll be watching for you, "Abe"!

JANIE LEE STALLINGS

"A noble soul alone can noble souls attract."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 4; Girls' Sport Club 3; Athletic Association 4; Girls' Club 1, 3; Varsity Basketball 3, 4, Captain 4; French Club 4.

For the past two years Janie Lee has been a valuable asset to the Girl's Varsity Basketball team. Her power to shoot goals has made her known throughout the school. A very fine girl in a very fine school—that's Janie Lee!

JOHN BRUTON STANBURY

"STAN"

"How agree the kettle and the earthen pot together?"

Phy-Chem Society 4, President 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Tennis Team 3, 4.

Science is John's first and last thought and most of the time in between except when he takes time out to play a game of tennis or to enter into an argument with the boys. Should he show the same bustling activity at Medical School that he displays here, "things will move."

WILLIAM ALLISON STEPHENS, JR.

"BILL"

"Fate will find a way."

Home Room Vice-President 1, Treasurer 1, 4; Glider Club 3; President 3; Carmichael Literary Society 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Radio Club 3.

"Bill" is interested in aviation which accounts for the fact that he's up in the air so much of the time. Nevertheless, he has that grim determination which spells success in any profession.

JOSEPH BOWLING STONE

"JAY"

"Let us do or die."

Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2; Orchestra 2.

"A Bowling Stone gathers no moss." Bowling rolls thither and yon, going the way that his fancy dictates. Though he sometimes gets home in the "Wee sma' hours," he manages to turn out good work on the "morning after."

WILLIAM FLETCHER STRAYHORN, JR.

*"He dives through shivering waves, or rides the swell
On rose-red seas of melody, a swim."*

Page Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Marshal 3; Kiwan Club 3, 4; Home Room President 2, 3; Home Room Council 1, 3; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Hi-Rocket 4.

A prayer, that extreme popularity may not make one conceited, has been answered in "Bill," for he has been well liked by all his associates in Durham High, including students and faculty, but has shown no elements of snobbishness. The whole school is for "Bill."

PAUL GASTON TALLY

"DEACON"

"There's the humour of it."

Home Room Secretary 1, Treasurer 2, President 4; Carmichael Literary Society 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3; French Club 4; Art Club 4.

A cheerful disposition, a pleasing personality, and a sunny smile are factors which assure our "Deacon" absolute success in anything and everything he tackles. Here's luck to you, Paul, and may you go far in life.

ROLAND THURMAN TAYLOR, JR.

"RED"

"No really great man ever thought himself so."

Cooperative Class 4; Athletic Association 4; Commercial Club 1, Hi-Y 3, 4, Carmichael Society 2, 3; Football Manager 2.

Flaming red hair usually signifies a hot temper, but this cannot be said of "Red," because he has the nature of a pacifist. He is a "Coop." in the true sense of the word, for he strives to support all objectives of the class and to contribute to all school projects.

STROUD TILLEY

"STRUT"

"Attack is the reaction, I never think I have hit hard unless it rebounds."

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Captain 3; Carmichael Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; Commercial Club 4, Treasurer 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Kiwan Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Monogram Club 2, 3, 4, President 4.

"Strut"—of basketball fame! He's the state's best dribbler, a swift fellow on his feet. We are wondering how future Durham High teams will get along without "Strut's" guiding hand.

VIRGINIA TILLEY

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4.

Virginia is as lively and jolly a girl as can be found in D. H. S. She always has a cheerful word for everyone she meets. With her ready laugh she will certainly carry sunshine wherever she goes.

ROBERT WADH TIPPETT

"ACE"

"There are very few persons who pursue science with true dignity."

Phy-Chem Society 3, 4, President 4; Kiwan Club 3; Hi-Rocket Staff 4.

The expression "Ace High" was coined especially for "Ace" Tippet. He stands high in chemistry as well as high in his socks. We can truthfully say that we are expecting big things of this six-footer.

JANET LOUISE UMSTEAD

"Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh."

Southgate Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Marshal 2, Vice-President 3, Treasurer 4, Stunt Cast 1, 2; Home Room Secretary 1, 2; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 3, 4.

Louise's ability both to talk and to laugh is seldom excelled and, as her friends say, never surpassed. Her face, which is always lighted with smiles, and her happy disposition have won for her a host of friends. We know that no one will ever be able to fill Louise's place in D. H. S.

MARY MINA UNDERWOOD

"Be merry if you are wise."

Commercial Club 3, 4, Commercial Club Cabinet 3; Southgate Literary Society 3, 4, Stunt Cast 1; Home Room President 3, 4, Treasurer 2.

Mina's acquaintances hold her in high esteem, because of her steady work. She studies well and perseveres at her labor. If she continues to follow these principles, she will climb to the topmost round of achievement.

MARGARET LOUISE UPCHURCH

"MART"

*"A lovely lady, garmented in light
From her own beauty."*

Athena Literary Society 1; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Home Room Secretary 2, 3, Chaplain 2; May Court 2; Southgate Literary Society 3, 4.

Pretty is as pretty does is a good old proverb, and our "Mart" is a living example. Skin deep beauty does not last unless heart beauty is also present. That's a high tribute, but none deserves it more truly than she.

JOHN MAURICE WEBB

"SHINNIGAN"

"Tho' modest, on his unembarrass'd brow Nature had written—Gentleman."

Blackwell Literary Society 1, 3, 4, Chaplain 1, Treasurer 4; Home Room Treasurer 3, President 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4; Debating Team 4; Athletic Association 4; Kiwan 3, 4.

"Shinnigan's" hair is a good example of his character and personality—outstanding. He is the perfect gentleman in every way. "Cotton" is acquiring the ability to express and to set forth his thoughts and theories in a manner that makes it a pleasure to hear him. We wish him due success in his future career.

MARY LOUISE WEST

"LOU"

"And mistress of herself though China fall."

Southgate Literary Society 3, 4, Critic 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Athletic Association 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 2, 3.

"Lou" is one of our most dependable girls. She has attained heights of poise and dignity not possessed by many of us. We know "Lou" will get her heart's desire, and we wish her luck in it.

WILLIAM EDGAR WHITAKER, JR.

"BILLY"

*"Ah, to build, to build!
That is the noblest of all the arts."*

Page Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Boy Scouts 1, 2.

"Billy's" hard work certainly has good results. Nothing seems to divert his attention from his favorite subject, English. His heart is bigger than his body when it comes to helping the other fellows. His air castles of today will be built tomorrow, for he expects to be an architect.

THOMAS WRAY WILKINSON
"TOM"

"The birds can fly, and why can't I?"

Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4, Current Events Club 4; Hi-Y 4.

"Tom's" choosing aviation as his life's work is characteristic of him, because he likes machinery and excitement. He is not a boy to "get up in the air" because of honors, but really wants to get up literally. When "Tom" starts up, the sky will be the limit.

BEULAH CLEONE WILLIAMSON

"Honest labaur bears a lovely face."

Athena Literary Society 3, 4, Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

Beulah thinks and follows her own convictions. Although she has little to say, we are fully aware that "still water runs deep." Her attitude is the type that teachers pray for and seldom find. As a bookkeeper she is unsurpassed.

HENRY ISRAEL WILSON

"HINK"

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

Varsity Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4, Blackwell Literary Society 1, 2, Commercial Club 4, Monogram Club 4.

"Hink" plays end on the football squad, but he never plays end on his studies. Always on the alert on class as well as on the gridiron he has won the respect of many and the good wishes of all.

JOSIE LOUISE WOOD

"SNOOK"

"A cheerful temper joined with innocence will make beauty attractive, knowledge delightful and wit good-natured."

Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

"Snook" is a very jovial girl. Many will be her opportunities to spread comfort, joy, and cheer to the sick ones under her care.

MARGARET WOODS

"LUCKY"

"Always studious, ever ready to help anyone, quiet and demure, a real friend."

Lila Brogden Literary Society 3; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 2, 3

"Lucky," who is very studious, but not to the "dull point," is a real friend and comrade. She is a quiet and demure lass, though she can enter into fun as well as anyone. Here's hoping "Lucky" has success in her business dealings.

MARGARET FRANCES WOODY

"FRANKY"

"A merry heart dath gaad like medicine."

Girls' Sport Club 3; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3.

"Franky" is a pretty, gentle, young lady who has endeared herself to both teachers and pupils. We are confident that she will be a leader in the profession of nursing.

KATHERINE ELIZABETH WRIGHT
"LIBETH"

"An honest man's word is as good as his bond."

O. Henry Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2.

To all appearances Elizabeth is a domestic "find." For her sterling qualities of cooking, nursing, and arguing, some think she will make an excellent wife for any man. But others know that she is literary and will make a good job of anything she takes a hand in.

VIRGINIA SUSAN WRIGHT
"JENNY"

"Saw life steadily and saw it whole."

Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; O. Henry Literary Society 3, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff 4.

"Jenny" has carved such an important place for herself in our hearts that we don't know what we'll do when she is gone. We would like to be selfish and keep her with us. Since it can't be done, we'll say, "Good-bye and good luck!"

FRANCES EILEEN YOUNG
"LEEN"

"And those who paint 'em truest, praise 'em most."

Athena Literary Society 1, 2; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 1; Dramatic Class 1, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 3, 4.

Eileen is soon to take up Art at Temple University, where she already has a scholarship. With her jolly and amicable disposition she is sure to make a hit. No doubt, Fate has picked "Leen" for an American artist.

ESTHER ZUCKERMAN
"ZUCKIE"

"By the work one knows the workman."

O. Henry Literary Society 4; Athena Literary Society 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Home Room Critic 4.

If Esther doesn't halt her career by settling down before she reaches the top of the ladder, she will some day make a great artist. But whatever she does she'll do it well, of that we feel sure.

The Senior Entertainers of '32

The Senior Entertainers joined the hook-up of DHS for the first time in September 1929, in two divisions: the Freshmen, announced and directed by Annie Laurie Newsom; and the Sophomores announced and directed by Bill Berry, who was succeeded after a short time by Anne Mebane, the vice-director.

The Freshmen girls participated in the sports at station DHS and the honor roll bore a number of the Freshmen names. Many lively programs were presented through the year, concluding with the broadcast of a yachting party. The yacht was steered by Annie Laurie Newsom and gaily flew the Freshman colors, green and white, from its lofty mast.

The Sophomores best displayed their talents during the football and basketball seasons, participating in the games presented by DHS and working for the studio and its glory in both local and national affairs.

In the autumn of 1930 the Freshmen and the Sophomores merged. Under the name of Juniors, we collaborated in all programs, and we elected Thurman Ross chief director and announcer.

After having had one year's experience, our scholastic ability asserted itself. Rufus Powell, one of our most famous and talented entertainers, won first place on the negative side of the State-wide Aycock Triangular Debate which is annually staged by station DHS in coöperation with other broadcasting stations of North Carolina.

The Juniors coöperated with the Senior Entertainers of '31 in their larger and more complicated programs which were presented as preparation for their hook-up with the station WORLD. Just before the departure of those Senior Entertainers we, the Juniors, broadcasted a reception in honor of the departing members of the staff of station DHS. This reception was well received by the radio audience and concluded the broadcasting from DHS for the station term 1930-31.

In the fall of 1931, we Juniors, as a reward for good work and experienced labor, succeeded to the place of honor and were dubbed Seniors. A new chief announcer, Anne Mebane, was elected to direct the work. She had as assistants George Holloway, Mary Louise Shepherd, and Carl Lee.

The first outstanding program presented under the auspices of the new Senior Entertainers was one in which all of the station workers took part; namely, an athletic campaign to support the athletic schedule of the studio. Because this was a highly successful drive, an important athletic program followed which was broadcast from station SPORTS. Many of the Seniors took part in this program and won high honors. On the football field, Thurman Ross, Sam Hobgood, James Bryan, Woodrow Hayes, George Holloway, and Henry Wilson did outstanding work, with Hayes and Hobgood winning all-state football honors. On the basketball court Herbert Mason, Stroud Tilley, George Holloway, and Ben Skinner upheld the reputation of Durham High School. On the baseball diamond Paul Talley, Herbert Mason, George Holloway, Thurman Ross, and Sam Hobgood brought further glory to their school.

Among the Senior girls, Janie Lee Stallings, Elizabeth Lively, and Juanita Rust won places on the girls' honorary varsity basketball team.

The next program which we presented was a Christmas pageant directed by Miss Marguerite Musser Herr, a member of our National Board of Censors. The true Christmas Spirit was represented to the great unseen audience by the dramatization of the visits of the shepherds and the wise men to the place where Christ and his mother were staying at the time of the Christ child's birth.

The Senior Entertainers continued the annual project of station DHS by the publication of the information and guide book for its station companions. Rufus Powell was Editor-in-Chief, Margaret Franck and Mary Louise Shepherd, Literary Editors, Mary Frances Ivey, Art Editor, and Carl Lee, Business Manager, while Clara Roberson, a Junior Entertainer, became Associate Editor.

Four members of the Senior Entertainers won recognition in the spring of 1932 in the State-wide Aycock Triangular Debate, staged in coöperation with the stations of Raleigh and Fayetteville. The query was, "Resolved that the United States should adopt a system of compulsory unemployment insurance." The representatives from station DHS who won both sides of the annual debate and spoke at the finals at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill were Rufus Powell, John Webb, Sargent Russell, and William Lewis.

Many others among the Senior Entertainers showed their ability by winning places on the honor roll for good work and service to station DHS. Some of them are John Gilbert, Marcia Anderson, Margaret Izard, Annie Laurie Newsom, Ethel Lipscomb, Carolyn Goldberg, Elmer Johnson, Anna Neamon, Sargent Russell, Mary Louise Shepherd, and Lela Hooker.

As a service to the station in making it possible for the Juniors, Seniors, and Sophomores to keep in touch with each other, a newspaper, the Hi-Rocket, is published bi-monthly. Annie Laurie Newsom, who was Editor-in-Chief during the year 1931-1932, was assisted by Mena Fuller and Philip Russell, Co-News Editors, Marcia Anderson, Literary Editor, and W. P. Budd and Cummings Mebane, Co-Business Managers.

At the close of the year the largest program was presented by the Senior Entertainers in the form of a three act play, "What Happened To Jones," which was a very delightful farce. New equipment in the form of a drop curtain was used by station DHS for the first time in presenting this play. The cast was composed of Philip Russell, Margaret Franck, Annie Laurie Newsom, Charles Edwards, Mena Fuller, John Gilbert, Ethel Lipscomb, James Smith, Lela Hooker, Woodrow Massey, Anderson Oldham, Dorothy Edwards, and Cecil Yates.

In the spring of 1932 we, the Senior Entertainers, having completed all the required work and training, took the first step to success and hooked up with the International Broadcasting Station, WORLD.

—MARGARET IZARD, '32.

The Class Prophecy

Old 1932 stood turning the dials on a masterpiece of mechanism, which resembled a radio. The rapt expression on his face told that he was expecting some rare thing to occur. Suddenly there was a loud crash; then silence. Out of this came an oracular voice—a voice from the future. Old 1932 passed this voice's utterances on to us, bidding us give it nationwide publicity over our network. Therefore, Station CLASSES presents to you—

The voice:

Recently the world has been startled by the news of Cortez Roberson's daring non-stop flight to Paris. The brave young man took just enough food with him to keep him alive, including: 17 plank steaks, 92 gallons of tomato soup, 13½ loaves of bread, 145 stalks of celery, and one half of Joe's delicatessen shop.

Rufus Powell, the man with the golden voice and the silver words, is now digging ditches under Overseer George Faucette.

Burke Hobgood, owner of the famous midget show, says that Wadii Tippet is his favorite midget and attracts huge crowds. Among these crowds many celebrities are to be found, namely: Sam Hobgood, the notorious racketeer; Frances Moss, a second Elsie Janis; Doc Ross, the talented clothes modler; and Howard Perry, doughnut manufacturer.

The Honorable Carl Lee, new president of the U. S. A., has recently ended the depression by adopting Ghandi's method, that is the introduction of spinning wheels into America. Buck O'Brient, the manufacturer of these wheels, has amassed an enormous fortune. He benevolently donates his money to those of his classmates who are now in the poorhouse, among whom are: Carolyn Goldberg, Margaret Hazel, Dot Edwards, George Holloway, and Tom Council.

The famous art critic, Ethel Lipscomb, has recently declared that Mary Frances Ivey's new painting, entitled "A Bowl of Cherries" is elegant. However, some contend that Murray Jones has her beat with his "Bowl of Raspberries."

"Doe" Massey is now starring in a new musical comedy. He is supported by Violet Gulley, Marjorie O'Brient, Kathleen Long, Adah Fulford,— and the "sister act," Clarice and Margaret Dixon. Incidentally the Dixons have turned platinum blonde. They attribute their loveliness to the efforts of Monsieur "Psyche" High's beauty salon. Monsieur High, who is himself a platinum blonde, employs in his salon: Tom Cheek, Ned MacKay, Burwell Dunn, Fanny Carden, and Doris Pearce.

Jack "Red" Satterfield states that he intends to try for the light-weight boxing championship. His trainer, James Howe, backs this statement.

Dorothy Cole gives advice to the love-lorn in a column headed "Love Will Find a Way." Some of her ardent fans are: Charles Edwards, John Webb, Lois Pierce, Raymond Perry, and Virginia Rogers.

Mrs. Pat Brooks (né Miss Mary E. Bitting) has just written a book of Mother Goose Rhymes. Anderson Oldham says that they are too childish, but Mena Fuller says that they are all right. Read them for yourself and see.

An attractive "reducing" establishment has just been opened by Mern Plyler, who weighs 273½ pounds. She declares that when she was in High School, everybody envied her for her sylph-like form. Her largest customers are: Susie Hicks (302 lbs.), Clara Gattis (279 lbs.), Mina Underwood (542 lbs.), and Annie Laurie Newsom (scales out of order!)

Mrs. Jim Bryan, the former Miss "Alvina" Hooker, says that she had decided to be an old maid, but that "Chin" was so powerful . . . !

Radio listeners often listen in on the "Speaking Voice" lessons given by Frances Piatt. Sometimes complaints are sent in about the static.

New York's street cleaning department has been swelled considerably by the Class of '32. The department boasts the following talented street cleaners: Jack Brock, Henry Wilson, Woodrow Hayes, Milton Shepherd, Strut Tilley and Murphy Boyd.

Cump and Gyp Mebane have grown beards and are now manufacturing Mebane Brothers' Cough Drops. (The Smith Brothers got peeved and gave up, because Cump's and Gyp's beards were longer than theirs.)

David Caton is now in jail, because he took candy away from little children. Sheriff Hopkins says that David is a "bad man."

Marie Smith has just been awarded a gold medal, one which is inscribed: "The Champion Yodler of Durham County." Martha Horton won second place in the yodling contest.

Paul Talley has recently visited Durham in the course of his revival meetings. It is generally conceded that the Reverend Talley could make a post weep and repent.

A man with a Russian beard was seen selling popcorn on the corner. When the beard was pulled off everybody said, "Ah ha! Philip Russell!"

Ben Skinner and Billy Whitaker are now proprietors of the Skin-Whit circus. They are showing some of the finest collections of freaks in captivity. Some of the freaks are: Cecil Yates, Ralph Dermott, Bowling Stone, Billy Hesse, and Gilbert Carrington. Mary Louise Shepherd, famous bare-back rider says that she only uses those horses that come from C. B. Knight's Livery Stable.

Delia Copley, the widely-known journalist, has recently endorsed DuRant Tooth Paste. She feels that the reason that Bill Lewis, her editor, raised her salary was that she gave him that famous DuRant smile.

By the use of his persuasive voice Bill Hobgood now sells patent medicines. He carries with him a full blooded Indian to drum trade. (We know confidentially that the Indian is Raymond Couch.)

John Stanbury, a noted surgeon, is now practising in Apex. In case you need his assistance just call 362—"Apex Cat and Dog Hospital."

Sqwawk—! Awrk—Sppft—fft!

Here static intervened, causing old 1932 to sink back, startled—as he was awakened from his reverie. He had listened to the Voice of the Future, and was wiser by far than before he heard.

Last Will and Testament

Thoroughly understanding the gigantic, yet unrealized vacuity that will undoubtedly remain in the broadcasting company upon the withdrawal of our mental sagacity, loyal endeavors, and cool, though aloof, calculations that are undeniably necessary attributes for the correct and profitable administration of the nationally recognized station DHS, we, the Seniors and leading announcers, feel that some insertion into the monstrous cavern that must unwillingly remain in the efficient and automatic machine that we have promoted and maintained through the year 1932 is imperative to make amends for the sudden withdrawal of our ponderous and sedate carriage, and that some assistance must be rendered to elevate the rising leaders to the coveted pinnacle that has been attained by our unceasing efforts to promote our beloved station to the highest; we leave a proficient, orderly, and well organized mechanism that has broadcast the attainments of our members and employees to greater distances than ever before. Therefore: Being possessed of our right minds, and undeniably competent to dispose of our estates, we do herein set our hands and seals on this our last will and testament:

Article 1. Pat Brooks bequeaths his deep bass guffaw to Nick Ashby in hopes that he may use it to advantage when cracking jokes near the "South-gates."

Article 2. Phil Russell benevolently leaves his unfailing ability to tell his friend the when and how of any subject in public interest, to the future Blackwell Literary Society politicians, realizing the necessity of "chin wagging" to hold one's own against the marshal's charges.

Article 3. Wadii Tippet wills his lofty outlook upon the world to "Lib" Lee knowing that the "petite little lady" can use it to advantage on the dance floor.

Article 4. John Stanbury leaves his scientific mind and pronounced adversity to any coming Junior who has the ambition to become a Latin scholar.

Article 5. The "High" blonde leaves his platinum locks to Hubert Johnson who will surely use them to advantage when enticing the opposite sex.

Article 6. Ben Skinner wills his bull dog tenacity upon the basketball floor to Tom Borland realizing that he will undoubtedly need the quality next year.

Article 7. Juanita Rust bequeaths her "Scotish cheveux" to Ken MacKay to permit him to appear more characteristic of his native fatherland.

Article 8. Cortez Roberson leaves his buxom, well-rounded figure to any member of the high school who can handle its portage with the ease and lilted grace that is portrayed by the silhouette of the jovial lad.

Article 9. Our popular friend, Miss Clara Roberson, is left a serene and becalmed expression, so characteristic of complete guilelessness of all worldly affairs, by John Webb, who realizes only too well the benefits that may be derived from the proper use of such a profile.

Article 10. Bill Lewis lends his "dynamic personality" when there is a necessity for things to be done well, to Peter Moody in hopes that Peter can carry on where Bill has begun.

Article 11. Ethel Lipscomb bequeaths that exclusive ability of "woofum" to the Eddie Canter of the future senior class, whoever it may be.

Article 12. John Gilbert wills the name of the famous movie star and also the characteristic tenaciousness in anything, to any person who is on the "up and up" and is going on to higher things, for he understands best the value of such a quality.

Article 13. Murray Jones and "Nat" Ornoff will their cartoons and startling realistic sketches to Charlie Noell and the art class in general.

Article 14. George Faucette deems it fitting to intrust his grins and blushes when Miss Herr dubs him "Cupid" before the English class, to Linwood Baldwin, feeling that "Duck" can use the blushes, if not the grins to a better advantage.

Article 15. Sam Hobgood wills his peaceful conscience to Tom Borland, leaving with it the wish that Tom will have as "sweet dreams" as "Hobby" did.

Article 16. Carl Lee affectionately leaves his nose for news to anyone in the Junior Class who will see that it misses nothing.

Article 17. Tom Council vacates regretfully his enviable position of Durham High School errand runner; he leaves this office to Tom Southgate, in hopes that he may turn it to as much profit as the Commodore did.

Article 18. Dot Cole leaves her entertaining ways, and wiles, and guiles, and all that stuff to Mary Frances Council, telling her to use them in a way that will bring her glory and fame.

Article 19. Clara Gattis bequeaths her first place in lunch line to any hungry Junior, who must have food—and that right away.

Article 20. Mary Gallagher leaves her innocent expression to Marion Reade, hoping that Marion will know what to do with an innocent expression.

Article 21. Ruth MacKay leaves that northern accent to Bob Clements, so that Bob can keep himself amused and awake by rolling his r's around.

Article 22. Lela Hooker throws her knitting, crocheting, spectacles, old maid curls, and false teeth to anyone who will promise to get rid of them. Lela is going modern!

Now that we are to leave the cozy broadcasting station, DHS, we find that our troubles and petty disturbances were not so bad as we would believe, and that we are in reality loathe to leave its protecting walls. However, as we go, our lips form the words that are in all our hearts: "Farewell and prosper in your good work, Durham High."

As sole executor and administrator of this most valuable and honored parchment we, the Senior Class, do hereby appoint the officers of Class '33 to execute this, our last will and testament, according to the full meaning of the same, hereby declaring all other wills formerly made by us void.

Class Poem

With steady hands uplifted, shading from the sun,
The paths and walks and roadways merging into one,
With eager feet traversing this roadway dim with dust,
With all our hopes in flower, and all a racer's lust,
With hearts fast beating, ready, to trudge away the miles,
To reach an arch'd gateway, a laurel wreath and smiles ;
We, Athenian runners, lighted by our Sun,
Stumble through the shadows, until our path is won ;
Reaching for successes bloom, perhaps to have it fall,
Looking up to reach again, perhaps to catch it all.

Ours to leave a safer land where brighter sunlight fell,
Where brighter shadows played about, through happier hours and well.
Ours to hold in memory's shrine, to treasure, realize
The wisdom that she offered to the foolish and the wise.
Ours to feel the hand of pain, ours to say goodbye.
Ours to leave sincerity, perhaps to find—a lie.
Ours to keep in precious dreams, through midnight 'till some dawn,
All that She has meant to us, as we are running on.

—MARY ELIZABETH BITTING.

Theme Song

AT PARTING

Farewell! O Alma Mater,
Our home for four long years,
In thee, each son and daughter
Has rested hopes and fears;
But now to new worlds turning,
We have this one desire:
That this thy wealth of learning,
May lead us ever higher.

Though far our footsteps wander
On stranger lands and new,
We'll often stop to ponder
O'er days we spent with you.

With tender hearts and loyal,
With willing hands and true,
We work for laurels royal,
This class of thirty-two,
That we may lay before thee,
Dear mentor, D. H. S.,
Rewards of love and fealty,
The fruits of happiness.

Senior Cast

THE last and most important part of the Senior Entertainment was the presentation of the three act comedy, "What Happened to Jones?" Perhaps the greatest asset to this production was a new stage set, which was greatly admired by the many fans who came down to the station to watch our broadcasting programs. All of our listeners-in generally concluded that this was one of the most amusing and entertaining of all our programs.

The play itself was full of fun and hilarity.

The plot centered around Jones, a young man who sold playing cards in the lively towns and hymn books in the dead ones.

This rôle was portrayed by Philip Russell. Professor Goodly, a man who had devoted his time to study, was Charles Edwards, while Mrs. Goodly was well interpreted by Margaret Franck.

Marjorie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Goodly, who was engaged to Heatherly, Woodrow Massey, was played by Dorothy Edwards. Annie Laurie Newsom assumed the part of Minerva, a refined girl of twenty-six years. Mena Fuller took the part of Cissy, the life of the play, who falls in love with Jones. The Bishop of Ballarat, who was suave in manner and spoke with the English accent, was acted by Cecil Yates. He was in love with Alvina Starlight, Lela

Hooker. Then there was Helma, a Swedish girl with not the slightest degree of intelligence, who was Ethel Lipscomb. Anderson Oldham played the part of Bigby, an escaped lunatic; John Gilbert played the part of Fuller, superintendent of the sanatorium; and James Smith played the part of Holder, a New York policeman. The doors opened at 7:30. Crowds were already waiting. The Auditorium was filled. When the play was over, everyone expressed admiration and pleasure at the manner in which the actors portrayed each part.

The proceeds from this play went this year toward defraying the expenses of photographing the staff of 1932 in the year book.

SCENES FROM MAY DAY

Signing Off!

Farewell! the class of '32
From station DHS
Is sending its last program through
Of joy and happiness.

We're signing off, the program's o'er
For all our listeners-in,
But we shall go on as before
And private stations win.

For four long years we've entertained
With valorous deeds and great,
And every record we've sustained
And upheld up to date.

Though now to new lands we may go,
We oft will listen in
And hear the programs that will flow
When new broadcasts begin.

The class of '32 no less
Will uphold standards bright
Than when it was in D. H. S.
We're signing off. Goodnight!

POST GRADUATE

Post Graduate Entertainers

Due to the capable leadership of Presidents Margaret Higgs and Lois Mullen, and Adviser, Miss Solloway, we are able to broadcast reports of a most successful year. Forty-six high school graduates enrolled in our studio to take the thorough business training which Durham High School staff offers. Diligent, concentrated effort resulted in a larger percentage of shorthand artists than in any preceding class. Our speed artists have promoted a cultural atmosphere in the studio by adding to the art collection of the Commercial Department the following pictures: "Sir Galahad," "The Marine Scene," "Spring," "Summer," "Coloseum and Surroundings," and "The Capitol."

Now, forty-six Post Graduates are ready to enter the business world with the firm belief that "He can who thinks he can." We wish to express our appreciation to Miss Solloway, Miss Martin, Miss Holland, and Miss Bishop, who have taught us the true meaning of this quotation.

Before signing off we wish to present the staff of Entertainers:

COOPERATIVE

The Co-operative Class

This is Station CLASSES now coming on the air for the presentation of the Coöp program. We, the Coöp class, are operating on a frequency of half-day schedules through the DHS network.

As a special feature of this program we are going to present to you a partial history of the work of this class for the past year.

Striving ever for ideals which have been handed down to us through fourteen years of progress, the members of the present group have successfully rounded out another year of excellent work. Our director, Miss Maude Rogers, assisted by a group of staff artists, of which we will later make mention, has striven to make this the most successful year ever spent in this work. Well might we be proud of our progress, for never before have we produced a record showing more honor rolls, less failures, and less absentees. This term we are sending out into the world of everyday affairs a group of eleven seniors, who we feel sure will be a great benefit to the community.

In reviewing the accomplishments of the year, we would deal not only with instruction work, but also with the social side of our existence, for we believe this also to be beneficial. Up to the present date we have successfully produced, with the aid of the Commercial Club and Miss Rosalynd Nix, one major play, "Tommy." Over our station we presented two one act plays which were directed by various members and which showed talent. One of the plays was given in the auditorium and the other was a feature at the annual spring social.

We strive ever to provide clean entertainment for our fellowmen, to promote fellowship with one another and with all mankind, and to instill into our own hearts those moral, social, economic, and educational ideals which we can pass down to the coming generations.

COOPERATIVE CLASS

The Junior Entertainers

When the national hook-up DHS started its official broadcasting for the year, one of its chief programs was that given by the Junior Entertainers. These promising young station workers had as their chief announcer, William Oakley, president, with Howard Spain, Elizabeth Lee, Maxwell Holder and later, Linwood Jones—vice-president, secretary and treasurers—as assistants.

During the year, our class has contributed many stars to the lively athletic programs. Howard Spain, Linwood Baldwin, Maxwell Holder, Rupert Bryan, Ned McAllister, and Tom Southgate were always on the football field. Herbert Check and Tom Borland represented us in basketball. On the boxing and wrestling teams were found John Norris, J. B. Cooke, Douglas Umstead, Ben Brogden, Rupert Bryan, Joe Murnick, and John Salmon. While Howard Spain was running away with the track program, H. C. Mills, Herbert Check, John Norris and Bob Markham were knocking home runs on the baseball diamond.

The Junior girls upheld our reputation by winning the class championship in basketball, and by virtue of their outstanding playing, Mary Apter, Elise Tyndall, and Nola Mae Woodall were placed on the varsity.

During the first semester scholarship honors were won for us by Peter Moody, Rosa Lee Draughan, Anne Iazard, Charlotte Markham, Elizabeth Riley, and Edith Strother.

None of our members were placed on the debating team but Peter Moody distinguished himself as a declaimer.

A number of us were rather journalistically inclined as shown by our representation on the Messenger and Hi-Rocket staffs. To prove our ability, we were allowed to edit one issue of the Hi-Rocket which proved a great success.

Of course no program is complete without its musicians, so Euticus Renn, Clara Cockman, Howard Basil, and Malcolm Mann contributed their vocal talent to the upbuilding of this part of our program.

For the past two terms you have been listening to a broadcast of the program of the Junior Entertainers by permission of the Senior Entertainers, who, we hope, next year will turn over to us the rights of a first class radio program.

The Sophomore Entertainers

This is the final broadcast of the program of the Sophomore entertainers, sent to you through station CLASSES. At the first of the year four capable officers were elected, namely: Hugh White, chief announcer; Louis Jennings, announcer during the absence of the chief announcer; Victor Bowling, recording announcer; and Dorothy Smith, announcer of the funds. These have filled their positions with unsurpassed ability and at some future day may be head announcers. This program has talented entertainers in every line of achievement and is especially proud of its athletes, several of whom have won national recognition to Station DHS. Among these were Elmo Hackney and Willie Lee Mize who were stars in track, football, and basketball. Ted Collins, Hill Paschall, and Irvin Peed were our real tennis champs, and Rhoda Widgery and Doris Couch deserve special mention because they are the only girls of the Sophomore Class to make Varsity basketball team.

Romeo Germino, George Pope, Howard Basil, Mildred Goodrich, Cornelius Webster, Victor Bowling, and Elizabeth Fagg have devoted most of their time to music. These have made several broadcasts to clubs of the city and have sung in a contest broadcasted over the air from Greensboro, N. C. Mary Toms Newsom, Annie Whitty Daniel, Mary Wolf, Frances Bond, Elizabeth Hooker, Dorothy Wilkerson, Hugh Whitted, Landon Corbin, and Billy Brogden have won honors in scholarship. Many of the Sophomores took part in the program "May Day." Margaret Jones and Trannie Thompson were two of the attendants of the queen.

The regular program which lasts from Monday through Friday, from 8:35 to 3:10 (and sometimes later) occupies an important place in the program of Station CLASSES. The entertainers are looking forward to 1933 when we shall be Juniors, a little higher in our ambitions and standards, and a little nearer to our goal, the Senior Entertainment.

Station Activities

You are now listening to Station CLUBS, of the Durham High School. We are going to present for your delectation and enjoyment a series of programs prepared by the clubs and organizations of Durham High School. These programs are as varied and as interesting as the clubs presenting them, since those clubs range from musical organizations to a French Club and a newspaper.

The musical organizations include a Band, an Orchestra, and Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, so that our radio audience will not lack any possible kind of harmonious entertainment.

The French Club—Le Cercle Français, to give it its own dignified French title—is made up of brilliant members of the rising Junior and arriving Senior classes who have made La Bonne Marque.

The Hi-Rocket, a bi-monthly newspaper, and THE MESSENGER, an annual publication, have repeatedly taken prizes at the Columbia Press Association in New York City as well as at the University of North Carolina.

Between the above extremes there are other clubs just as entertaining. For instance, there are the Literary Societies. Much energy and enthusiasm is exerted on these, and they have proved to be well worth the while. Then, there is the Current Events Club, organized to increase the interest in everyday happenings. The Kiwan Club contains many rising young citizens-to-be, interested in civic problems. The Commercial Club includes all prospective business men and women, from the dogmatic boss to the charming secretary. And the Phy-Chem Club constitutes a group of students who are tomorrow's scientists. The Hi-Y and Blue Triangle Clubs were formed under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., respectively, and consequently are two alive and active organizations. Those who have been honored with a letter representing Durham High have banded together to form the Monogram Club.

And now it has been explained who makes your music and speeches, and entertains you generally. Naturally it will be asked—Who entertains you dramatically? The answer: The Dramatic Class and Coroso Players. The former is an energetic group who bursts out surprisingly often into a brainstorm in the form of a play; the latter presents usually only one play during the year, but that play is always a BIG EVENT, in capitals.

In order to keep all these groups well informed and up-to-the-minute, the Library Council is always ready and willing to help find any information wanted, which can usually be found in the excellent library over which it presides.

And overseeing it all, offering suggestions when needed, is the Student Council, the granddaddy-in-the-chimney-corner, so to speak. It's a great help, and it would be difficult to proceed without it.

This brief résumé includes practically all the clubs and organizations of Durham High School, from which you will shortly hear.

There will be a brief pause for station announcements, after which the first club will present its program. Please stand by.

Hi-Rocket

Program Director: MISS MARGUERITE M. HERR

This is Station CLUBS in the national hook-up, DHS, broadcasting the activities of the "Hi-Rocket," our radio guild newspaper. This paper is under the very capable leadership of Annie Laurie Newsom, editor-in-chief. The sixty members composing the staff are chosen for their scholarship, literary ability, and business judgment.

Despite the inactivity of Wall Street, the stock of the Hi-Rocket has remained above par, due to the subscriptions of the students and the confidence of business patrons.

Besides earning recognition for local programs, the "Hi-Rocket" this year was broadcast as the winner of first place in its class in the National Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest. The 1930-'31 issue of the Hi-Rocket, edited by Norman Livengood and Melvin Warner, was awarded the Hume cup, the prize given in the State Contest.

The paper is edited and published under student managers. Philip Russell and Mena Fuller comb the community for news; W. P. Budd and Cummins Mebane assume financial responsibility; and Tom Council circulates each issue.

Censorship is exercised by Miss Marguerite Musser Herr, as general adviser; Mr. B. L. deBruyne, in the capacity of business manager; Mrs. Strudwick as art director; Mrs. Belle Gholson, Miss Lelia Hampton, and Mr. Gibson as literary advisers.

Student Council

Station CLUBS has at its head a competent group of radio announcers and performers. This body, known as the Student Council, is composed of those who have shown special qualities of leadership. The principal aim of this group for the entire year has been School Beautification. With the aid of news articles and editorials in the Hi-Rocket this idea has been carried out extensively.

One of the most evident accomplishments of the Student Council is a combination victrola and radio purchased for the school with money from the improvement fund.

As its share in the programs of Station DHS, the Student Council has brought several noted speakers to the radio audience. Among them have been Mr. Wallace Wade, Football Coach of Duke University; Dr. Frank Hickman, of the Duke School of Religion; and Canon W. Thompson Elliott, Vicar of Leeds, England. The Student Council also played its part in officially welcoming to Station DHS, the Rotarians, the Kiwanians, and the North Carolina Educational Association.

The Student Council has worked to encourage sportsmanship and to support scholastic games by sponsoring a very successful athletic campaign.

This is the Student Council bidding you good-bye.

Program Director: MISS BELLE HAMPTON

This is the program of the James H. Southgate Literary Society which has "Tui Non profeit deficit" as the theme song. The announcers, Lenelda Munford and Ruth Lyon, aided by the director, Miss Belle Hampton, have served as an inspiration for the other members of the society in presenting programs composed of current events, book reviews, stories, readings, music and humor for the enjoyment of every radio fan. A new point system which has proved very successful was inaugurated by the directors. Ruth Lyon won the star for the most outstanding work last year. A banquet was the special feature of a most enjoyable social program which was presented this year and was very well received.

The Southgate Literary Society invites you to listen in on their next program which will be presented in the near future.

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society

Program Director: MISS LELIA HAMPTON

This is the Cornelia Spencer Literary Society signing on Station CLUBS. This was the first girls' society to become affiliated with the station. Its purpose is to promote excellence in scholarship and public speaking and to encourage a spirit of comradeship among the members. The theme song is "All things excellent are as difficult as they are rare."

As a special feature of this program we would like to thank Clara Roberson and Bess McGlothlin for their good staff work on the programs of the society and to express to Miss Lelia Hampton our sincere thanks for the interest she has manifested in our society. We also wish to congratulate Virginia White who won both the Guilford College medal and the one offered by the Womans' Club. These victories have served as incentives to encourage better public speaking among our members. This year among our entries in the Guilford College and Woman's Club contests were: Lunell Lewis, Bess McGlothlin, Virginia White, and Peggy Silver.

On award day a medal was given to the member who had done the most to promote the success and happiness of the society.

This society cooperates with Station DHS in all things, one of which is the annual stunt night program.

Carr Society

Program Director: MR. H. L. FOSTER

The Carr Literary Society will now present its program from Station CLUBS. One of the main aims of this society is to encourage good sportsmanship through programs presented to the radio audience. We owe our respects in the sporting world to the following: Rupert Bryan and Joe Murnick, who were member and manager respectively of the State Champion Football Team; Norman Pope and Claude Weatherspoon, who were on the basketball team, which was invited to the annual Washington and Lee State High School tournament; J. B. Cooke, Henry Miller, Harry Sigley, Louis Silver, and John Salmon, who gained renown by being on the third consecutive State Champion Wrestling Squad. Norman Pope added more credit also by being a member of the baseball squad.

Much credit is due to our adviser, Mr. Foster, who helped us carry on our work in sportsmanship in an excellent manner.

This is the Carmichael Literary Society, coming to you from Station CLUBS, a hook-up of the National Broadcasting Station DHS.

This society presents programs of an athletic nature. As most of the members are very active in the sports' world, they bring glory and honor to the National Broadcasting Company. The members of this society who have done outstanding work on the football team are Howard Spain, James Bryan, Jack Andrews, Willie Mize, Maxwell Holder, Woodrow Hayes, Romeo Germino, Tom Fuller Southgate, Ned McAllister, and George Holloway. Stroud Tillet, Elmo Hackney, Rupert Bryan, and George Holloway were on the basket ball team.

Mr. Woodward is the adviser of the Carmichael Literary Society and his influence has meant a great deal to the society in the preparation of its much enjoyed programs.

Blackwell Literary Society

Program Director: MR. QUINTON HOLTON

This society first became affiliated with Station CLUBS in 1905. It has had many excellent advisers among whom are Mr. W. D. Carmichael, Mr. W. J. Brogden, Mr. E. J. Green, Mr. C. M. Campbell, Mr. Holland Holton, Mr. C. E. McIntosh, Mr. P. H. Gynn, Mr. A. H. Wolfe, Mr. Blalock, Mr. Eaton, Mr. Brearley, and the present tireless and inspiring Mr. Quinton Holton. They have manfully upheld the society's aim, which is to train young men in speaking and in parliamentary procedure, and to study questions of public interest. Its success has been shown not only by present members in the school but also by many graduates in college and in the business and political world. Among the charter members of the society were Mr. Jule B. Warren, now secretary of the N. C. E. A., Mr. M. A. Briggs, president of Austin-Heaton Co., and the late Mr. Burke Hobgood, Sec. of Durham Chamber of Commerce, who was one of the society's foremost debaters in the early days.

For the past two years three members of the Aycock debating team have been members of the Blackwell. In the last thirteen statewide declamation contests which Durham High entered the school representation won the medal in eight, each winner being a Blackwell boy.

This year, the society has as a main project the publishing and distributing of its constitution. You have listened to Blackwell Literary Society through CLUBS of Station DHS in Durham, North Carolina.

Singing the theme song, "We go to seek on many roads," the O. Henry Literary Society is on the air again over station CLUBS. For the benefit of those listeners who have no television receiving sets, Frances Piatt declares the colors of this society to be red, purple and black, and the flower to be the pansy. This literary society joined Station CLUBS in 1926 and took its name from one of North Carolina's best known men of letters. Under the direction of Mrs. Swindell the varied programs have all been planned with the aim of creating ease and poise in public speaking. The enthusiasm of this society has been a constant source of inspiration to the entire school.

In order to cultivate friendships, various social programs have been arranged throughout the year. Until our next program this is Elizabeth Riley bidding you all good-bye.

Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society

Program Director: MISS LOUISE T. WATKINS

At this time Station CLUBS is presenting the program of the Lila Markham Brogden Literary Society. Organized in 1926, under the supervision of Miss Louise Watkins, this society has climbed to an important position here at the station. The society was named in honor of a former member of the National Board of Censors, Mrs. Lila Markham Brogden, who has become prominent in club work all over the state.

In order to obtain a greater variety in these bi-monthly programs and in order to give more girls an opportunity for training in leadership, the entertainment committee is appointed at each meeting for the next meeting. The society trains girls in public speaking, recitation, and parliamentary procedure.

Each year a medal is given by Mrs. Brogden to one of the members in recognition of the work and service she has performed to the society and to the station.

The National Broadcasting Company, Station DHS presents one in a series of great programs by associated station CLUBS. The Athena Literary Society, under the directorship of Mrs. Egerton and influenced by the theme song, "Today, not tomorrow," has presented some very worthwhile Literary programs composed of readings, original poems, sketches, and impromptu talks.

As the members of the society were divided into three groups, a healthy competitive spirit ruled in all of the accomplishments. At the annual award day of the station a medal was given to the member contributing most to the life of the club. Several social programs for the purpose of cultivating friendship were well received.

Walter Hines Page Literary Society

Program Directors: MISS MARGUERITE HERR, MR. R. E. FREEMAN

CLUBS and associated radio stations present this program of activities and achievements of the Page Literary Society, an annual broadcast by its members.

During the year programs were designed and presented to give practice in public speaking, in parliamentary procedure, and in good citizenship projects. Under the leadership of William Lewis the Constitution of the society was revised and adopted. In the annual county-wide oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion, Peter R. Moody won second place. William Lewis won a place in the State Contest. The group presented "Nellie Gray" on the Durham High Stunt Night program, and held the fifth annual banquet for members and alumni. The last number on our program will be the selection of the best Page whose name will be inscribed on the Walter Hines Page cup, a trophy presented to the school in 1932 by members of the society. This honor goes to the Senior who, during his membership, has done the most outstanding work for the society and the school.

Aycock Debating Team

Program Director: MR. QUINTON HOLTON

Station CLUBS presents its annual debate. This program, given under the auspices of the University of North Carolina, is one of a large number given in coöperation with the other schools of North Carolina. Durham High was a member of the triangle composed of Raleigh, Fayetteville, and Durham.

A goodly number of boys came out for the first preliminary which was held in the high school library, February the 26th. Charles Edwards, William Hobgood, Rufus Powell, Philip Russell, and Sargent Russell represented the affirmative, while John Gilbert, William Lewis, and John Webb upheld the negative side of the query, Resolved: That the United States should adopt a compulsory system of Unemployment Insurance.

The judges for the preliminary debates, after a lengthy discussion, selected Rufus Powell and John Webb to uphold the affirmative side with William Hobgood as alternate, and William Lewis and Sargent Russell for the negative with Philip Russell as alternate.

The negative side spoke against the affirmative side of Raleigh at Fayetteville and the affirmative team met the negative of Fayetteville at Raleigh.

Station DHS had the honor of winning both debates, and the representatives entered the finals that were held at Chapel Hill, April 14.

Because of sickness John Webb was unable to attend the finals and William Hobgood was called in on the day of the debate to take his place. The teams were eliminated in the first finals at Chapel Hill.

This is the report of the Aycock Debate coming to you from Station CLUBS.

Dramatic Club

Program Director: MISS ROSALYND NIX

We now present one of our most interesting groups in Stations CLUBS. The Dramatic Class is always ready and willing to give a program at a minute's notice. When not broadcasting, the members learn to become speakers, actors, make-up artists, playwrights, and model stage-builders. To the radio audience the class presented a one act play "A Small Down Payment" which was very well received. Although this was the only play given by the class, the various members of the class assisted in making other casts successful by their efficient work at make-up, advertising, or as "stage hands." By attending the State Dramatic Association which met in Chapel Hill, the class learned a great deal from other dramatists in the State.

We urge you to listen in on our next broadcast which will be presented in the near future.

Le Cercle Francais

Les directrices du programme: Mlle. Nix, Mlle. Bishop, Madame Llewellyn

Ce programme de la station CLUBS vient à vous par la courtoisie du Cercle Français. Monsieur Carl Lee, celui qui annonce le programme du Cercle, et les directrices, Mesdemoiselles Nix et Bishop, et Madame Llewellyn, désirent annoncer que le Cercle a eu de grand succès cette année. On a organisé ce club il y a trois ans pour les élèves qui ont fait beaucoup de progrès dans l'étude de la langue française. Les séances ont été très intéressantes; tous les programmes et toutes les conversations étaient en français. Le Cercle a aidé les membres parce qu' on les y a appris à parler et à comprendre le français. Puisque nous n' avons plus encore de temps, il faut discontinuer le programme. Une autre programme de ce cercle viendra à vous l'année prochaine au même temps. Le Cercle Français vous fait ses adieux.

Le Président M. CARL LEE
Le vice président Mlle. MARGARET IZARD
Le secrétaire Mlle. MARGARET FRANCK
Le trésorier Mlle. MERN PLYLER

The Commercial Club

Program Director: MISS ETHEL SOLLOWAY

In presenting the annual broadcast of the Commercial Club the play, "Tommy," looms foremost in the program. This play was broadcast by the Commercial Club together with the Coöperative Class, under the direction of Miss Nix, and under the management of Miss Solloway and Miss Rogers. From the proceeds, the studio was able to contribute over one hundred dollars to the stage equipment fund. Two other programs were excellent lectures given by Professor Malcolm McDermott and Mr. M. E. Newson.

Since the last broadcast the speed artists of this studio have won honors in the State Commercial Contests—both in shorthand and in typewriting. They won two silver cups and two gold medals for speed and accuracy in shorthand and a gold medal in typewriting. Three cheers for the station speed artists!

At this time the club wishes to express its appreciation to Miss Holland, Miss Martin, and Miss Bishop, all of whom presented excellent programs from this station.

The Commercial Club owes a great deal to its President, Howard Perry, under whose leadership many things have been accomplished.

The station officers for this year were:

President	HOWARD PERRY	Secretary	RUTH LYON
Vice-Pres.	GERALD COOPER	Treasurer	STROUD TILLEY

We hope you have enjoyed this program and we now bid you farewell until 1933. Station CLUBS will present another program in just a moment. Please stand by.

Durham Central Hi-Y

Program Director: MR. A. E. JENNY

The National Broadcasting Company Station DHS presents the Durham Central Hi-Y with great pleasure. Under the auspices of Station YMCA, the Hi-Y Club has presented its programs for the purpose of promoting the growth of the spiritual, moral, and social lives of the members of the club and all listeners-in. In keeping with this purpose, many noted speakers have been secured to talk from the studio of the station on interesting, instructive, and uplifting topics.

Several programs of a social nature have been sent over the air by staff members and their guests. One of the most praiseworthy programs presented by the Hi-Y was an Older Boy's Conference, which was highly successful.

It is with high hopes for the future that we bid you good-bye, and invite you to tune in on this station at this same time next year.

Art Club

Program Director: MRS. C. R. STRUDWICK

Station CLUBS presents the Art Club of Station DHS. This club is the newest organization in the Durham High School and was formed by Mrs. Strudwick at the request of interested pupils. The plan is to work on any individual project in which the members may be interested, to make sketching trips, to bring exhibits to the studio, and to establish a coöperative feeling between the art department and the other departments of the Station.

The enrollment at present is twelve members, six of whom are members of the art classes, and the others are talented students not taking art. The Club requires the students who join to have at least one semester of art, to have done outstanding work, or to have recognized art ability.

A constitution controls the Club and regulates the programs presented. We invite you to listen in on our next program. This is the Art Club of Station CLUBS.

Current Events Club

Program Director: MRS BELLE C. GHOLSON

The Current Events Club is on the air! In the fall of 1931 this society celebrated the first anniversary of its affiliation with Station CLUBS. In review of the programs presented this year, Mrs. Gholson, the director announces that the aims carried out have been to gain experience in the interpretation of the printed page, to keep in touch with the happenings of the day, to develop a sense of toleration and a better understanding of the people of the world.

Far from endorsing the alleged enmity arising between the newspapers and radio of today, members of our club enjoy the prompt service of both, since they vie with one another as news distributors.

The members of the Current Events Club venture to hope that the listeners have gained some profit as well as enjoyment from its efforts to please.

Kiwan Club

Program Director: MR. W. F. WARREN

Hello, everybody! The Kiwanis are on the air! For the past two years these programs have been presented to the radio audience.

The Kiwan Club was organized in 1930 under the careful supervision of the vocational guidance committee of the Durham Kiwanis Club. The purpose of this group has been to help the boys of Station DHS find out for what occupation they are best suited, and to train them further through contacts with the men of the Kiwanis Club.

A special feature which was very beneficial to this club was the appointment each week of a boy who visited and lunched with the Kiwanis Club. The officers of the club were the first ones to visit the Kiwanians, while all the Seniors and several under classmen were next to go to these meetings.

A luncheon program was presented by the Kiwanis in March. At this time the Kiwanis Club was the guest of Station DHS.

The Kiwanis bring their annual program to an end, expressing confidence that they have given much valuable assistance to those boys who were undecided as to their life's work.

The Kiwanis now bid you good-bye from Station CLUBS of Station DHS.

Library Council

Program Director: MISS FLORINE LEWTER

Station CLUBS will now broadcast the news of the Library for 1931-32. Your speaker is Doris Pearce, president of the Library Council. Since the chief function of the library is to give service, we endeavor to carry out this purpose in all of our undertakings.

The Council, which is composed of students from the Post-Graduate, Senior, and Junior Classes, meets on the first and third Mondays of each month. At these meetings our most efficient librarian, Miss Florine Lewter, gives instructions in the different phases of Library Science. Practical application of this instruction is made by having at least one member on duty to assist the students in any way possible.

The members of the staff are: Rachel Adams, Wilsie Bussell, Fannie Carden, Ruth Carden, Dorothy Edwards, Margaret Mangum, Bess McGlothlin, Marjorie O'Brient, Doris Pearce, Frances Piatt, Catherine Rigsbee, Elizabeth Riley, Edith Strother, and Virginia White.

Station Sports

Station SPORTS is happy to announce to the vast radio audience that the year 1931-32 has been one of the most successful years in the history of the school, as far as athletics is concerned. This is borne out by the fact that we can boast two state championship teams—wrestling and football—and an enviable record in each of the other sports.

Our coaches and leaders have largely concentrated their energies in carrying out the principle that it does not matter whether we win or lose, but how we play the game. It has been the aim of the station to develop a spirit of coöperation throughout the entire student body, thus giving every man a chance, rather than to throw the spotlight on a few good players.

Our code of sportsmanship is:

Keep the rules.

Keep faith with your comrades.

Keep your temper.

Keep a stout heart in defeat.

Keep your pride under a victory.

Keep a sound soul, a clean mind, and a healthy body.

Each team has striven to keep these rules of clean sportsmanship and at the same time has fought valiantly for victory. Of course, the football and the wrestling squads are to be especially commended. However, the basket ball team, aided by the coöperation of an enthusiastic student body, has continuously fought its way to brilliant victories. The baseball men have "batted" their way through many a hard won game and have thus added glory to our school. The track team has run faithfully for Durham High. The boxing team, just in its infancy, has proved that a young thing has plenty of pep and energy. In our tennis team, with its whizzing serves and vigorous returns, we have something to be proud of, for it has met with victories on every hand.

A great deal of credit goes to those boys who have done their best work for their Alma Mater. The coaches and the managers are also to be commended and thanked for their excellent leadership and fine spirit.

The listeners will now hear from their programs what the teams have accomplished during the year. Station SPORTS presents the games of the season.

Football

The first program sent to you through station SPORTS is a short résumé of the accomplishments of the 1931 football team. In the early fall, at the opening of the station, the call for football men to report for practice was issued. This call was answered by a husky bunch of intended heroes. After a few days, the squad was cut down, and practice was begun in earnest under the supervision of Coach Stuessy assisted by Burke and Richmond.

Soon the untrained and green squad was unified into teams. Using seven letter men, five linesmen and two backs, as a nucleus, Coach Stuessy soon had a very effective defensive and offensive team. Although the team was inexperienced at the beginning of the season, it easily won its first games—each succeeding game adding experience and confidence.

Durham clinched the Eastern Championship by defeating the strong Rocky Mount team 20-7. Having made a clean-sweep of the entire schedule, the locals were entitled to meet Charlotte, winner in the Western Conference. The game, according to custom, was played at Kenan Stadium, Chapel Hill. In a downpour of rain that transformed the stadium into mud and slush, the Bull Dogs defeated Charlotte, 13-6. The victory gave Durham the State Championship for the first time in the history of the school.

Such stellar lights as Hayes, Hobgood, Bryan, Ross, and Wilson, all of whom leave us this year, will long be remembered for their brilliant playing and good sportsmanship.

Basketball

Using three members of last year's varsity team, Tilley, Holloway, and Skinner, as a nucleus, Coach Stuessy completed an effective lineup.

The season was begun with a 25-14 victory over Efland. After the Bulldogs had weathered their first test, they encountered the Carolina Freshmen. While out-playing the Freshmen, they came out with the short end of a 31-28 count.

Stuessy's basketeers next met High Point on a foreign court and beat the "Furniture Makers" 30-18. A trip into Eastern Carolina gained them a 33-14 victory. This was followed by a 26-17 victory over Rocky Mount in the same vicinity. The play against Oxford on the home court resulted in a 24-7 conquest. In one of the closest games of the season Durham dropped a 11-8 game on the Fayetteville floor. The favored "Wildcats" met the Bulldogs on the local court but fell short 11-16 in an exciting game. In a "runaway" game in Goldsboro the second string men ran up a 53-18 score. High Point was then met in a return game, Durham eking out a 22-21 victory. The Bulldogs met their arch-rivals, Raleigh, in the last conference game. After a heart-breaking contest, the final gun gave the Wake County men a 22-20 decision. Coach Stuessy next took his quint to the Southern High School tournament held at Washington and Lee University. Charleston, S. C., was met on the first day and defeated 16-14. The next day the powerful John Marshall team sent the Bulldogs home with a "smarting" 22-14 defeat.

We are sorry to announce that we are going to lose four of this year's team by graduation. They are Holloway, Tilley, Skinner, and Mason. As you see we are losing much valuable material, but we feel assured that there will be a team to carry on the traditions of Durham High School.

Wrestling

We are very happy to announce that in wrestling the Bulldogs won the State Championship for the third successive year.

Practice started in the early winter when Mr. Uzzell issued his call for wrestling men to report for training. He was answered by a husky bunch of "grapplers." Although brawny and eager enough they were as a whole inexperienced and untrained. But soon under Coach Uzzell's experienced coaching they learned the tricks and skill of the game. Consequently out of the lower gym came another one of those traditional Bulldog teams.

The "grapplers" encountered the Greensboro team here and won a decisive victory. On the return match they duplicated their previous performance. Their next victory was gained over Bragtown, whom they easily out-classed and defeated. When they encountered the State Freshmen team they received their only defeat of the season by the score 19-5. The State team had three state champions, one of whom was Jim Fortune, a former Durham wrestler. The cause of the small number of meets was due to the fact that there were few teams in the state. Nevertheless, it was a fair representation of the state as Greensboro defeated High Point and Leaksville, and was then decisively defeated by Durham.

The matmen next journeyed over to Chapel Hill where they entered the state meet.

Durham entered seven men in the meet and at the semi-finals they had not lost a single match. But in the semi-finals they lost two matches, and won two by default, two by decision, and one by a fall. In the finals, Miller, Captain Yates, Germino and Cook all won their matches thus giving Durham four state champion wrestlers. Bragtown took two matches in the finals, while Leaksville and Greensboro took one each. But as Durham was best represented, our team was awarded the title.

In spite of the fact that we are going to lose Captain Yates on account of graduation, we should have a team next year that will duplicate this year's performance.

Baseball

In announcing the baseball program for the season, attention is called to the fact that last year Durham High School dropped this form of athletics. The team, starting with only three letter men, Hobgood, Pope, and Mason, grew very rapidly. As many boys came out for practice, there was no trouble in filling the extra positions.

This year's baseball conference has ten teams, of which the Eastern conference is a division. The Eastern conference consisting of Raleigh, Fayetteville, Durham, and Goldsboro gives a good representation of the state.

Ross, Mason, and Hobgood, seniors, were elected co-captains of this year's team.

The schedule was:

March 23	Duke Freshmen at Durham
March 31	Raleigh High School at Raleigh
April 4	Cary High School at Durham
April 8	Goldsboro High School at Durham
April 12	Raleigh High School at Raleigh
April 15	Fayetteville High School at Fayetteville
April 18	Cary High School at Cary
April 22	Fayetteville High School at Durham
May 3 ..	Goldsboro High School at Goldsboro

Tennis

You are now listening to the Voice of the Tennis Squad, brought to you over station SPORTS. The close of this school term marks the end of the biggest year that the tennis team has ever experienced in the history of Durham High School. With only one member back from last year's squad, Coach Swanson has developed one of the strongest teams in the state. The team opened its activities with a victory over Durham's traditional rival, Raleigh, and reached its climax in the state tournament held at the University of North Carolina.

A new-comer in the high school, David Caton, is captain of the team, and John Stanbury is manager. The squad is composed of: David Caton, Ted Collins, Sneed High, Carl Peed, Nick Ashby, Francis Beard, Hill Paschall, Buck O'Briant, Joseph Levine, and Dick Saintsing.

Golf

The Golf team, although not having received much recognition in the past, has been an important activity. This year the golf team was composed of three members of last year's team and one new member. They are Henry Clay Poe, captain, Arlen Stone, "Cump" Mebane, and W. P. Budd.

The team began practice early in the spring under the guidance of Mr. Hester. After a few weeks' practice matches were played for positions. Poe gained first berth with Stone, Budd, and Mebane filling the other three positions. The matches were played at the Country Club course.

This year the team faced one of the most complete and toughest schedules it has yet had. They had local and return matches with the various schools of the state and entered the South Atlantic tournament held at Charlotte.

The Schedule was :

April 2	Raleigh High at Raleigh
April 8	Greensboro High School at Greensboro
April 16	Winston High School at Durham
April 20	Carolina Frosh at Durham

Girls' Athletics

This program is broadcast from Station SPORTS, hook-up of the national broadcasting station, D. H. S.

Girls' Athletics which is organized and directed by Mrs. Hostettler, is the entertainment of the program today. The program is devoted to higher physical efficiency and to the development of true sportsmanship among the girls of Durham High School. It offers a most varied assortment of sports. In the fall there are field hockey and swimming; in the winter, basketball and volley ball; and in the spring, baseball, tennis, swimming, and archery.

In order to give all girls an equal chance in basketball, color tournaments are played. This year the "yellow team," of which Rhoda Widgery was captain, won the contest. After the color tournaments, the girls who have proved to be the best players while participating in "color matches" are selected for class teams. The Junior class won the silver trophy for 1931-32 as a reward for the school championship.

The following girls who played in the "color" and class tournaments made the honorary varsity and were awarded a chenille school letter: Janie Lee Stallings, Mary Ruth Stallings, Juanita Rust, Anna Neamon, Rhoda Widgery, Doris Couch, Virginia Gray, Elise Tyndall, Elizabeth Lively, Mary Apter, and Nola Mae Woodall.

The members of the class teams elected the following captains:

Junior: VIRGINIA GRAY

Senior: JANIE LEE STALLINGS

At the end of the school year, the Athletic Association gave a banquet to all the members of Station SPORTS. It was one of the most outstanding functions of DHS, the national broadcasting station.
